LBJ ASKS NEW MACHINERY

Waco, Tex. (AP)— President Johnson urged Friday the creation of new inter-American machinery to keep the peace and guard against "forces of slavery and subversion" in the Western Hemisphere.

"When hours can decide the fate of generations, the moment of decision must become the moment of action," Johnson said in a commencement address at Baylor University.

Johnson hailed the creation of an inter-American peacekeeping military force in the revolt-racked Dominican Republic.

"This may be the greatest achievement of all," he said.

Withdrawing 1,700 More

Johnson announced that he issued orders Friday morning for the withdrawal of 1,700 more U.S. troops from the Dominican Republic, bringing to 3,300 the total of men recalled.

Also, he said, he has instructed Lt. Gen. Bruce Palmer, U.S. commander on the scene, to discuss further withdrawals with Brazilian Gen. Hugo Panasco Alvim, over-all commander of the Inter-American Force.

Johnson did not define the type of international peacekeeping machinery he wants. Presumably, however, he would like to see member nations of the Organization of American States pledge in advance to make troops available immediately to deal with any crisis such as the Dominican.

"Out of the Dominican crucible the 20 American nations must now forge a stronger shield against disaster," he said.

In a speech earlier in the day in the state capitol in Austin, he said the United States must be "prepared, alert, ready and willing to make certain that aggression does not pay, that subversion shall not succeed."

Portrait Unveiled

The occasion for the Austin speech was the unveiling of a full-length portrait of the President by David Philip Wilson. It will hang in the state senate chamber.

Devoting his Baylor speech almost entirely to the Dominican situation, Johnson said "broad outlines of a reasonable settlement are beginning to emerge" under the leadership of Jose Mora, secretary general of the OAS.

But he cautioned that "the path ahead is long and the way is hard."

Johnson said the Dominican Republic provides an opportunity for "a new thrust forward—to show the world the way of true international cooperation in the cause of peace and in the struggle to win a better life for all

The Four Realities

"We believe the New World may most wisely approach this task guided by new realities.

"The first reality is that old concepts and old labels are largely obsolete. In today's world, with the enemies of freedom talking about 'wars of national liberation,' the old distinction between 'civil war' and 'international war' has lost much of its meaning.

"Second is the reality that when forces of freedom move slowly — whether on the political, economic, or military fronts — the forces of slavery and subversion move rapidly, and decisively.

"Third, we know that when a Communist group seeks to exploit misery, the entire free inter-American system is put in danger. We also know that these dangers can be found in many of our lands. There is no trouble anywhere these evil forces will not try to turn to their advantage. We can expect more efforts at triumph by terror and conquest through chaos

"Fourth, we have learned in the Dominican Republic that we can act decisively and together"

Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Osceola — Remodeling can be fun.

It can, that is, if you can pick the right project.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lewis apparently did.

Hanging on a wire inside the double wall of a barn they were working over they discovered a full bottle of well-aged rye whiskey.

Well hidden in the old barn, the bottle probably was part of a cache from the prohibition era, surmised Lewis, who has owned the property about five years.

Vintage Not Clear

Its vintage isn't quite clear. The bottle carries a 1901 stamp, but it was wrapped in a yellowed 1933 edition of the Omaha Bee-News.

Though the old-age liquor has become quite a novelty around Osceola — everyone wants to be in line when it's opened — the Lewises "would rather have found a box full of money."

But they plan to make the best of the situation, though no one has come up with an important enough occasion to warrant popping the cork on the aged square bottle.

Special Occasion

"We've been discussing it," said Mrs. Lewis, "and I guess we'll save it for a special occasion. We both have birthdays coming up."

"I guess after 32 years it can wait a bit longer."

Lewis made one thing clear, though.

If the bottle ever goes into the antique collection of the historical society, it will go in empty.

125 Making 'Little Selma' March In Mississippi

Brandon, Miss (UPI) — A colorful band of 125 civil rights demonstrators, protected by state police, trudged eight miles down a foundry road to a cow pasture Friday on their first leg of their "little Selma" march.

State police arrested two white men suspected of waving a pistol at the marchers. It was the only incident during the first day of the two-day march to protest voter discrimination.

The demonstrators arrived at their campsite well before dusk and found waiting for them two of the huge tents used on the historic Selma-to-Montgomery march in Alabama.

The marchers planned to take two days to cover the 14 miles between Fannin, where they started, and Brandon, the seat of Rankin County.

Wave Flags

They marched three abreast along the asphalt of State Highway 417, some of them waving little American flags and singing "Keep your eyes on the prize—hold on!"

There was little jeering by passing whites. The front ranks were made up of local Negroes—middle-aged Negro women in bright dresses and floppy straw hats, and men in over-alls and high-topped shoes. Bringing up the rear, about 75 yards behind, were the white civil rights workers, some with beards, cowboy boots and single earrings. There were two white girls.

The marchers sprawled out on the thick grass of Negro farmer Henry Griffin's pasture late Friday, waiting for their fried chicken dinner. Cows were shooed away to make room for the demonstrators.

The two huge tents—one for men and one for women—were 12 feet apart and placed about 300 yards from the road, behind a cotton patch.

"If anybody goes into a tent where he doesn't belong, they will have to leave," CORE leader George Raymond, 22, told the marchers "There will be no visiting"

Following the Selma-to-Montgomery march, after which the Brandon march is patterned, there were charges of widepsread sexual promiscuity among demonstrators.

Troopers set up checkpoints on both ends of the march, all cars were stopped and officers peered inside. Motorists were told of the march and were warned to drive carefully.

Also rolling along with the marchers was a pulpwood truck loaded down with three portable toilets and a passenger vehicle carrying two doctors and a nurse, in the event any of the demonstrators needed medical attention.

-FREEMAN ACTS-

20 Counties In Disaster Area

The federal government Friday declared parts of 20 drought hit Nebraska counties as major disaster areas and authorized ranchers to feed their cattle on reserved feed supplies.

Gov. Frank Morrison announced U S Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman's decision after being notified by telegram.

The message said ranchers in those areas of the state adversly affected by severely dry weather may begin immediately to graze their stocks on hay harvested from soil bank lands.

It also authorized the use of feed grain and wheat from diverted acres until the end of the 1965 feed grain program.

The governor said the drought conditions were the result of dry weather in western Nebraska over the past two years He said recent rains have helped improve conditions, but that a feed problem still exists.

The counties included in the declaration are in the Panhandle and southwest Nebraska.

They are Banner, Box Butte, Chase, Cheyenne, Dawes, Deuel, Dundy, Frontier, Garden, Haynes, Hitchcock, Keith, Lincoln, Morrill, Perkins, Red Willow, Scotts Bluff, Sheridan and Sioux.

State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Director Hans O. Jensen said that if feeding conditions worsen, ranchers will probably be allowed to buy feed grains at 75% of their loan price under the government's livestock feeding program.

Need Feed

Jensen said cattlemen in the area are urgently in need of additional feed for their livestock, and that the disaster declaration should help a lot.

"This is no small thing. This will be a big help," he said.

Morrison had requested disaster aid for the counties after a special three-member study committee headed by Agriculture Director Pearle F. Finigan reported drought conditions were critical.

The committee discussed the problem with ranchers and farmers, then recommended a request for aid be filed with the federal government.

"There are feed shortages in many areas. This aid was badly needed," the governor told a hastily-arranged news conference.

Seek Plan To Provide Industry Aid

Gov. Frank Morrison said Friday a workable plan of technical assistance to industry in Nebraska is being developed in anticipation that implementing federal legislation will be enacted by Congress.

Morrison said he believed "the University of Nebraska should furnish industry with technical services like the College of Agriculture does for agriculture."

He indicated such a program could be implemented under the proposed State Technical Service Act of 1965 now pending before Congress.

"It is intended to stimulate a higher degree of professional and technical services to industry," he said, and the program would be funded both with federal and state monies.

Morrison said he has named Chancellor Clifford Hardin, Dr. Emerson Jones, special consultant to the governor on science, and David Osterhout, director of Nebraska Resources Division, to recommend a program to his office.

He said the University of Nebraska would be designated the official state agency for the technical assistance program if the federal act is passed.

The committee will report "recommendations for implementation of the technical services program."

Indian Coal Mine Blast Takes Over 200 Lives

New Delhi, India (AP)—An explosion so powerful it wrecked houses and killed men on the surface shattered a coal mine near Dhanbad Friday. More than 200 miners perished and it was feared another 200 were trapped or dead.

Fire broke out Friday night in the mine, and it appeared flames and smoke were condemning many trapped men to a fiery death.

The official death toll in the east Indian disaster was "more than 200." But unofficial reports reaching New Delhi said about 375 men already were known dead. It was feared the toll would rise to more than 400.

The disaster was shaping up as the worst in the history of India's collieries. R. K. Malviya, deputy labor minister, termed it unprecedented.

A shift of 178 miners was being replaced before dawn by another of unknown size when the mighty blast thundered through the Bhori Colliery, near Dhanbad. 225 miles northwest of Calcutta.

A shock wave erupted from the mine shaft, killing a group of men working on the surface and injuring 16 others. Timbers blew into the air like straw.

An engine room structure and the mine record office were blown away and several houses near the mine field crumbled. The blast reportedly rocked a four-square-mile area. A towering cloud of black coal dust rose into the sky

The world's worst listed mine disaster killed 1,559 workers in the Honkeiko Colliery in Manchuria April 26, 1942. An explosion at Courrieres, France, killed 1,060 miners March 10, 1906

Table Rock — A two-car head-on crash on the main street of Table Rock resulted in the death of Peter Jasa, 83, of Table Rock, Friday afternoon, the Nebraska State Safety Patrol said.

Mr. Jasa's car, southbound, collided with a car driven by Mrs Ronald Gilbert, 19, of Table Rock

Charlie Hall, Pawnee County sheriff said there was a possibility that Mr. Jasa was attempting to turn left and might have "blacked out," but this had not been confirmed.

Neither Mrs Gilbert nor her two small daughters were injured. Mr. Josa was a retired farmer.

Mrs. Gilbert told the sheriff that both cars were going slowly at the time of the crash

. . . TO BOOSTER

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP)— Astronaut Edward White will attempt to approach to within 20 feet of his orbiting booster rocket when he steps into space from the Gemini 4 spacecraft next week, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Friday.

Officials said White and his astronaut partner, James D. McDivitt, are to practice the world's first man-in-space rendezvous mission during their four-day flight scheduled June 3.

They also disclosed that White will be the first spaceman to use a gas-powered maneuvering unit to help propel him outside his orbiting spacecraft.

The report came as technicians worked to replace a defective battery in the Gemini 4 spacecraft.

Late Friday, NASA officials called a news conference to announce that McDivitt and White would attempt to rendezvous the 7,600-pound spacecraft with the burned-out second stage of the Titan 2 rocket.

Not Done Yet

Such a feat has not been accomplished by either Russian or U.S. manned space flights.

Later, officials revealed that White himself would approach the second stage after leaving the spacecraft.

Warren North, of NASA's flight crew support division, outlined this plan for the flight:

When the spacecraft separates from the second stage six minutes after launching, McDivitt, as command pilot, will fire jet thrusters to hold a tight formation with the spent stage, which will trail the astronauts by about 300 feet.

Throughout the first orbit, the astronauts will make a complete check of all their systems. At the start of the second orbit they will begin preparing for White's emergence, unpacking life support packs, the maneuvering unit and the 25-foot lifeline.

Sweeping over the Indian Ocean during this orbit, they will begin to depressurize the spacecraft cabin and pressurize their spacesuits. Over Hawaii, McDivitt will maneuver the spacecraft to within 25 feet of the second stage.

White will open his hatch and at a point west of Guaymas, Mexico, he will leave the vehicle. That will be about three hours after launching.

Using the maneuvering unit, White will slowly rotate toward the second stage, which is 27 feet long and 10 feet in diameter, and will be equipped with two flashing lights. The astronaut will carry a 35mm movie camera to take pictures of the earth, star background, the booster and the spacecraft.

10 Minutes Later

After 10 minutes, over Florida, White will begin returning to the spacecraft. The cabin will be repressurized and the suits depressurized.

Then McDivitt will fire thrusters so that the spacecraft will move about 16 miles away from the booster. During the fifth orbit, about three hours later, the Gemini 4 again will be maneuvered so that it will approach the second stage high over Africa.

McDivitt and White will close to within 10 feet this time to determine how well they can approach an orbiting craft, sighting on the flashing lights.

Then the Gemini 4 will again move away from the booster to conclude the rendezvous portion of the flight. The astronauts will continue on into their four-day mission.

Table Rock Man Killed In 2-Car, Head-On Collision

Table Rock — A two-car head-on crash on the main street of Table Rock resulted in the death of Peter Jasa, 83, of Table Rock, Friday afternoon, the Nebraska State Safety Patrol said.

Mr. Jasa's car, southbound, collided with a car driven by Mrs. Ronald Gilbert, 19, of Table Rock.

Charlie Hall, Pawnee County sheriff, said there was a possibility that Mr. Jasa was attempting to turn left and might have "blacked out," but this had not been confirmed.

Neither Mrs. Gilbert nor her two small daughters were injured. Mr. Josa was a retired farmer.

Mrs. Gilbert told the sheriff that both cars were going slowly at the time of the crash.

. . . TO BOOSTER

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP)— Astronaut Edward White will attempt to approach to within 20 feet of his orbiting booster rocket when he steps into space from the Gemini 4 spacecraft next week, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Friday.

Officials said White and his astronaut partner, James D. McDivitt, are to practice the world's first man-in-space rendezvous mission during their four-day flight scheduled June 3.

They also disclosed that White will be the first spaceman to use a gas-powered maneuvering unit to help propel him outside his orbiting spacecraft.

The report came as technicians worked to replace a defective battery in the Gemini 4 spacecraft.

Late Friday, NASA officials called a news conference to announce that McDivitt and White would attempt to rendezvous the 7,600-pound spacecraft with the burned-out second stage of the Titan 2 rocket.

Not Done Yet

Such a feat has not been accomplished by either Russian or U.S. manned space flights.

Later, officials revealed that White himself would approach the second stage after leaving the spacecraft.

Warren North, of NASA's flight crew support division, outlined this plan for the flight:

When the spacecraft separates from the second stage six minutes after launching, McDivitt, as command pilot, will fire jet thrusters to hold a tight formation with the spent stage, which will trail the astronauts by about 300 feet.

Throughout the first orbit, the astronauts will make a complete check of all their systems. At the start of the second orbit they will begin preparing for White's emergence, unpacking life support packs, the maneuvering unit and the 25-foot lifeline.

Sweeping over the Indian Ocean during this orbit, they will begin to depressurize the spacecraft cabin and pressurize their spacesuits. Over Hawaii, McDivitt will maneuver the spacecraft to within 25 feet of the second stage.

White will open his hatch and at a point west of Guaymas, Mexico, he will leave the vehicle. That will be about three hours after launching.

Using the maneuvering unit, White will slowly rotate toward the second stage, which is 27 feet long and 10 feet in diameter, and will be equipped with two flashing lights. The astronaut will carry a 35mm movie camera to take pictures of the earth, star background, the booster and the spacecraft.

10 Minutes Later

After 10 minutes, over Florida, White will begin returning to the spacecraft. The cabin will be repressurized and the suits depressurized.

Then McDivitt will fire thrusters so that the spacecraft will move about 16 miles away from the booster. During the fifth orbit, about three hours later, the Gemini 4 again will be maneuvered so that it will approach the second stage high over Africa.

McDivitt and White will close to within 10 feet this time to determine how well they can approach an orbiting craft, sighting on the flashing lights.

Then the Gemini 4 will again move away from the booster to conclude the rendezvous portion of the flight. The astronauts will continue on into their four-day mission.

Total Maritime Strike Feared

. . . PACTS EXPIRE JUNE 15

Washington (AP) — Government and union spokesmen warned Friday that an impending labor crisis threatens to tie up virtually every American merchant ship and cripple U.S. foreign trade on June 15.

"This industry is drifting into what could very well be an almost total strike," said Paul Hall, president of the AFL-CIO Seafarers' International Union.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz agreed that a strike crisis on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Coasts is likely when union contracts expire June 15. Wirtz first said such a crisis seems "inevitable," but amended that to say "likely."

Government Blamed

Hall said negotiations are at a virtual standstill and he blamed the government, saying it had failed to clarify federal maritime policy to give the shipping industry and the dozen unions involved a basis for further talks.

The Seafarers' and other maritime unions have long accused the federal government of adopting policies which encourage runaway U.S. shipping companies to place their vessels under foreign flags.

Wirtz and Hall, speaking before a Seafarers' convention, also engaged in an exchange of words on the case of who threw the coffin on the White House lawn.

Wirtz said he is in favor of union militancy if it helps improve U.S. maritime policy, "but when it takes the form of throwing coffins on the White House lawn, I'm against it."

Hall promptly denied his union had anything to do with the coffin incident last Friday during a demonstration by the AFL-CIO National Maritime Union. Two casket-shaped boxes heaved over the high iron fence onto the White House lawn were labeled "don't bury the U.S. Merchant Marine."

Hall said the NMU should not be blamed either because it could have been done by "one drunk" or someone not a union member.

Wirtz conceded that maritime unions, the shipping industry and the government have failed to agree on a constructive policy but said the blame should not be placed on any one faction.

Crisis Action Only

He said the major trouble in recent years has been that nothing is ever done until a crisis develops.

Wirtz said that despite the failure to work out a joint policy, government, unions and the industry all agree that continued decline of the U.S. merchant marine is inimical to the nation's interests.

"Our working relationships have not been very good and we had better recognize it," he added.

Hall said that although the government had agreed to answer policy questions submitted by the unions to help in the current negotiations, no replies have been forthcoming for the past 18 months.

Flares At Freeman

Hall's harshest criticism was for Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, who he said has been trying to persuade Congress to repeal the law assuring that at least 50% of government cargoes be shipped in American vessels.

Union charges of violation of this provision led to a union boycott of wheat shipments to the Soviet Union about 15 months ago.

The AFL-CIO International Longshoreman's Association —which conducted a lengthy strike several months ago— is not involved in the current negotiations, but the union's president, Thomas W. Gleason, said the longshoremen would fully support any strike by the other unions.

This would shut off incoming shipping from overseas as well as tying up outgoing American cargoes.

Negro Coed Proud First Graduate

Tuscaloosa, Ala. (AP)—Negro coed Vivian Malone said Friday she is proud to be the first of her race to be graduated by the University of Alabama. She graduates Sunday..

Miss Malone said she feels the path she has blazed will make it easier for Negroes to attend the formally all-white institution.

Miss Malone discussed her past two years on the Tuscaloosa campus before a battery of newsmen at her dormitory residence, Mary Burke Hall, a nearly new brick structure.

Social Aspect

The only thing abnormal about her university days, she said, was the social aspect.

"I did not attend many dances and that sort of thing," she said. "I feel that this type of activity is for having a good time and I didn't feel that this would have been the case for me."

She explained that she would have been welcomed, but that she probably would have just sat and watched the others.

Wearing a simple black dress, Miss Malone was well composed and said she was much more at ease than on that spring day two years ago when it took 3,000 federal troops to gain her admittance.

No Bitterness

The attractive 22-year-old coed said she held no bitterness for those who tried so hard to keep her from breaking the color barrier at the university.

President John F. Kennedy federalized the Alabama National Guard after Gov. George C. Wallace physically denied Miss Malone and another Negro, James Hood of Gadsden, admission to the registration hall on June 11, 1963.

She described her stay on the campus day as "on the whole, very interesting and very exciting. I have made many friends."

Israeli Raids Make Jordan King React

Amman, Jordan (UPI) — Jordan's King Hussein complained Friday to the United States, Britain and France about a series of Israeli border raids on Jordanian villages Thursday night. He said such "provocations . . endanger regional security and world peace."

Hussein called in the U.S., British and French ambassadors to discuss three Israeli border raids that a Jordanian spokesman said killed four persons and wounded four others.

The Jordanian monarch also invited the Soviet envoy to the meeting with the Western ambassadors. But he was out of town and could not attend

(In New York, Jordan and Israel filed counter-complaints with the U.N. Security Council but neither asked for a meeting of the 11-nation group. Each accused the other of "aggression." threatening international peace.)

In Tel Aviv, an Israeli military spokesman said it launched the raids on the Jordanian towns of Shuneh, Kalkilya and Jenin as a warning to Arab sabotage squads to quit attacking Israeli border settlements.

(Cairo diplomatic sources said Israel's attack on the Jordanian border towns may have been timed to expose the weakness of Jordan's defenses and thereby embarrass the Arabs).

Helicopters Collide; 9 Americans Killed

. . . SAIGON IN CRISIS AGAIN

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—A collision of two U.S. Army helicopters in flight killed nine Americans and injured two seriously at the Bien Hoa Air Base Friday.

Flaming wreckage was scattered at the base, where 27 died May 16 in a series of bomb explosions officially called accidental.

Sister ships of the 118th Helicopter Company — one rising from its pad and the other descending on a trip from Saigon—smashed into each other only 50 to 100 feet in the air. Other airmen of the company rescued the injured.

Heavy Ground Action

The accident came on a day of relatively heavy action in the ground war, sustained air strikes against Communist North Viet Nam and a rise of religious factors in Saigon's current political crisis.

Viet Cong guerrillas staged their first serious attack on defenses of the U.S. Marine beachhead at Chu Lai. 52 miles south of Da Nang, and subsequently cut Highway 1 between those strongholds during clashes with government troops in at least nine areas. They were reported to have partly destroyed one or two bridges.

One Marine was killed and 10 were wounded in the brief opening fight, six miles west of Chu Lai. Six Viet Cong were killed and one was wounded and captured during the exchange of small arms fire and grenades

Both sides made offensive strikes below Saigon.

Outpost Overrun

Guerrillas armed with mortars and recoilless rifles overran a militia outpost at Mea Thanh Ha, 15 miles southwest of this city. They killed 24 men and wounded 12.

A government spokesmen said 95 guerrillas were killed and 15 captured in a sweeping operation in Phong Dinh province, 95 miles southwest of Saigon. Government casualties were 10 killed and 39 wounded.

North of the border radar sites at Hon Matt, Hon Nieu and Cua Lo—a collection of offshore and inland early warning stations — were blasted in successive raids by American bombers.

Suu, Quat Spat

In Saigon, a crisis atmosphere attending differences between Premier Phan Huy Quat and Chief of State Phan Khac Suu over recent cabinet shifts was heightened as several religious groups took a hand.

The Rev. Hoang Guynh, a Roman Catholic leader, protested to Suu about a recently drafted law on religion that some Catholics consider gives Catholicism a status inferior to Buddhism. Objections also were reported voiced by the Cao Dai, Hoa Hao and Ba Hai sects.

A key figure in the dispute is Nguyen Van Vinh, whom Catholics consider their main representative in the government. Quat Tuesday named Nguyen Trung Trinh, an engineer, to replace him as minister of economy, but Vinh refused to resign. Backing him up, Suu has refused to approve this and other changes ordered by Quat.

The chief of state is a Cao Daist Quat is a Buddhist.

Apparently because of the political situation, Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor delayed his scheduled departure for periodic consultations in Washington. A U.S. spokesman said, however, Taylor still hopes to go this weekend.

Everglades Wildlife Threatened

Everglades National Park, Fla. (AP) — Birds, animals and reptiles have their backs to the wall in Everglades National Park, a vast, primitive subtropical wilderness that once teemed with wildlife.

Water has been the park's life blood through the ages, and today the water is gone —hoarded by man in great reservoirs for his own uses.

Marshes, dying under the blazing sun, are scourged in places by fire. Even hammocks, the "tree islands" that shelter the deer, the bear and the panther, are perishing.

In Drought's Grip

The park is in the grip of a current drought, but there have been worse droughts before. And rain alone can't maintain the abundant life of the 1.4-million-acre wilderness.

For ages, a large area of central Florida drained into mighty Lake Okeechobee. In flood seasons, excess water spilled over the south bank, creating a wide, shallow river that drifted slowly and almost imperceptibly down through the Everglades to the sea.

In the park area, the water nourished thousands of ponds, swales and sloughs filled with fish and crustaceans. As the fresh water poured off the Mangrove Coast into Florida bay, it mingled with the salt water to create a hugh brackish area in which conditions were perfect for breeding of shrimp, snook, tarpon and other fish. Birds and animals thrived.

Flows No More

But today, the "Sea of Grass" no longer flows. The water is collected in the gigantic reservoirs of the Central and South Florida Flood Control District. From there, it is released as needed to the rich farmlands between the lake and the park, and to the cities of the southeast Florida coast.

Does man need all that water? Or can he spare enough to keep the wild paradise of the park alive?

A great debate is raging Naturalists say that if it is not resolved soon, and in the park's favor, the park must die.

With it would go not only the wildlife that has delighted Floridians and a million tourist visitors a year, but also the great nursing grounds that spawn such game fish as the snook and the tarpon and supply south Florida's fishing industry.

Denial

The flood control district denies its dams alone have hurt the park.

"It's not a question of water for wildlife versus human needs," said Executive Director Ed Dial. "It is a question of not enough water anywhere — in the conservation area or in the park. We have had four consecutive years of subnormal rainfall."

Persons fighting for the life of the park, like its chief naturalist, Ernest T. Christensen, believe enough water can be spared to meet the minimum needs of its denizens without hurting anyone.

Conservationists find small consolation that Congress has voted the Army Engineers $400,000 to re-evaluate the entire flood control program. The study is expected to take two years and they wonder if the park has that much time.

The flood control program was born in catastrophe. It was started on a small scale in 1928, after a hurricane blew a towering wall of water over the south rim of Lake Okeechobee and drowned 4,000 persons in the farmlands.

80% Inundated

A massive effort was launched after 1947, when tropical storms poured 100 inches of water over the area and put 80% of it under water.

As dikes went up through the sawgrass, the concept gradually changed from flood control to water control.

Today, out through the park, the "survival holes" have nearly all dried up.

Crayfish dig down in the mud. Other tiny fish find little pockets of water in the porous underground rock. They can restock the Everglades, if enough live, and if the water returns in time.

Bankrupt Salad Oil King Handed Tentative Term

Newark, N.J. (UPI)—Ruling from a rarely-used statute, a federal judge Friday committed bankrupt salad oil king Anthony (Tino) De Angelis to a federal penitentiary for a three-month examination before passing final sentence for masterminding a $100 million commodities fraud.

U.S. District Judge Reynier Wortendyke Jr. imposed a tentative sentence of three 10-year and one 5-year prison terms, all concurrent, but said he would await the study and recommendations of the prison officials to determine a final sentence.

The flood control district denies its dams alone have hurt the park.

"It's not a question of water for wildlife versus human needs," said Executive Director Ed Dial. "It is a question of not enough water anywhere — in the conservation area or in the park. We have had four consecutive years of subnormal rainfall."

Persons fighting for the life of the park, like its chief naturalist, Ernest T. Christensen, believe enough water can be spared to meet the minimum needs of its denizens without hurting anyone.

Conservationists find small consolation that Congress has voted the Army Engineers $400,000 to re-evaluate the entire flood control program. The study is expected to take two years and they wonder if the park has that much time.

The flood control program was born in catastrophe. It was started on a small scale in 1928, after a hurricane blew a towering wall of water over the south rim of Lake Okeechobee and drowned 4,000 persons in the farmlands.

80% Inundated

A massive effort was launched after 1947, when tropical storms poured 100 inches of water over the area and put 80% of it under water.

As dikes went up through the sawgrass, the concept gradually changed from flood control to water control.

Today, out through the park, the "survival holes" have nearly all dried up.

Crayfish dig down in the mud. Other tiny fish find little pockets of water in the porous underground rock. They can restock the Everglades, if enough live, and if the water returns in time.

Bankrupt Salad Oil King Handed Tentative Term

Newark, N.J. (UPI)—Ruling from a rarely-used statute, a federal judge Friday committed bankrupt salad oil king Anthony (Tino) De Angelis to a federal penitentiary for a three-month examination before passing final sentence for masterminding a $100 million commodities fraud.

U.S. District Judge Reynier Wortendyke Jr. imposed a tentative sentence of three 10-year and one 5-year prison terms, all concurrent, but said he would await the study and recommendations of the prison officials to determine a final sentence.

Fairbury — Two off duty law officials narrowly missed becoming drowning victims of the flood swollen Little Blue River Friday afternoon.

Police Officer Robert Gerhardt and State Safety Patrolman Raymond Syslo were swept over the dam at the town's south edge in a small fishing boat. Both strong swimmers, they made it to brush piles one fourth mile downstream but were barely able to hang on until help arrived.

Seeing their plight, three teenagers plunged into the strong current to aid in the rescue. Steve Fentress, 13, and Leslie Hinrichs, 15, swam the river's full width and 14-year-old Dale Biehl turned back midway to go for a rope. Bob Thomas, 14, also helped in the effort.

"My first limb broke and I was washed a block or so below Syslo," said Gerhardt. "There was one last branch and if I hadn't gotten it I knew I was a goner. I took on a lot of water."

The mishap occurred as an oar slipped from its lock while the men were rowing across the dam. There were life jackets in the boat, but they were unable to grab them.

The boat, which belonged to conservation officer Larry Bauman, was not immediately recovered.

Youth Corps At Bellevue Terminated

Bellevue (AP) — The first neighborhood youth corps in Nebraska and one of the first in the nation has been terminated. The center opened here March 9 and had 160 enrollees.

Dr. Edwin Cramer, Bellevue superintendent, said he was notified by the Department of Labor in Washington that the government was terminating the project. He said no reason was given.

He explained that part of the contract was that it could be terminated at the convenience of the government.

Open to unemployed youths aged 16 to 21 on a full-time or part-time basis, the corps was designed to help youths stay in school. The government had paid 90% of the $50,000 project.

Duis Amendment Purpose Told By Author

Gothenburg (AP) — The author of the much-discussed Duis amendment to the Nebraska constitution said Friday its primary purpose was to insure that any sales or income tax passed in the future would be a positive replacement tax.

"There is nothing in my amendment that would prohibit the use of additional revenue above the replacement to be distributed to education or other worthy causes," Herbert J. Duis of Gothenburg said.

The former state senator made these observations in comment on objections raised by Gov. Frank Morrison and others in connection with the current debate on the proposed state income tax.

The Duis amendment provides that if the state passes a general sales or income tax it can no longer levy a state property tax

In his address to the Legislature Tuesday, Morrison suggested that this amendment be replaced with one channeling the revenue into grade and high school education.

"Without this, I fear that any general sales or income tax enacted by your body," he told the Legislature, "will open the floodgates for an unwise expansion of state bureaucracy."

The governor who has opposed the income tax, said subsequently he would alter his position if the Duis amendment were replaced with an amendment requiring any funds generated by a sales or income tax to be used to finance state aid to education.

"The governor's last statement about altering his views has left me with the belief he's for a broadened tax base if it's done the way he wants it," Duis said.

And he declared there is nothing about his measure which would engender bureaucracy. If the state were to get out of the property tax field entirely, he said, leaving property taxes to local taxing bodies, there would be no need for state equalization "because the local taxing body on real estate has a better view of what's going on than the state of Nebraska Board of Equalization."

Duis said he is "not for or against a sales or income tax but I don't want the governor using my amendment to evade an issue. I think he should tell the people whether he's for or against a sales or income tax and quit trying to confuse the issue."

'Paving Dept. Had Time' To Guard Danger Spot

The city Paving Repair Department was notified in time to put flares and barricades at an excavation at 66th and Orchard which was the scene of a Thursday evening traffic accident, plumbing contractor Silas J. Miller said.

The accident victim, John R. Scherer, 16, of 6645 Starr, was in satisfactory condition Friday evening at a local hospital with leg injuries.

Scherer had ran into a large pile of dirt and was thrown from his motorcycle. The pile, protected only by two flares and no barricades, became the subject of a question regarding who was responsible for protecting it.

Called Immediately

Police had discovered the danger area about 8:20 Thursday evening and had immediately called the Paving Repair Department requesting it to put up flares and barricades at the hole.

Police were told by the department that the hole was not dug by the city and that the police should locate whoever dug the hole and get them to put up the flares.

Officer Gordon Cox tried to arrange the two flares at the hole to provide more adequate protection. Police records show the time of the accident as 9:54 p.m.

Henry Holst, deputy city attorney, said he did not know who from the Paving Repair department had told police to contact the people who dug the hole.

Miller, contractor who had dug the hole, said the regulations of the Paving Repair Department specify that anyone who has a permit to make an excavation must call the department before 3 p.m., and if the department accepts the call, responsibility for protecting the excavation goes to the department.

Relayed

Miller said he called around 2 p.m. Thursday. Calls on such matters go through the city inspection department, which records the time calls come from contractors and the time that the call is relayed to the Paving Repair Department.

Lee Boehmer, head of the Paving Repair department, said a permit had been issued to the Miller firm by the city plumbing department and that his department had received a carbon copy of the permit.

Boehmer said he assumed the responsibility for protecting the excavation was Miller's.

Holst said since he did not know the exact responsibility for safety, as set down in the plumbing code, he would "rather not comment at this time."

Not Enough Time

Holst said he was sure that the code did cover safety responsibilities in connection with open excavations. He said he had not had sufficient time Friday to check the exact wording of the code and did not have a copy at his home.

Holst said the accident was the first occurance of this type in the six years he has worked for the city. He said the plumbing company had an insurance bond and policy to cover such situations.

Bill Would Aid Omaha Indians

Washington (AP)—A bill to authorize distribution of $1,454,174 on deposit in the U.S. treasury to the Omaha Indian Tribe of Nebraska was introduced Friday by Rep. Glenn Cunningham, R-Neb.

The money represents a 1964 award by the Indian Claims Commission.

Cunningham said the tribe and officials of the Interior Department have approved a plan for a per capita distribution of $270 to enrolled members of the tribe, with funds for those under 21 years of age to be deposited in a fund for education.

Any remainder after the payments would go for the benefit of the tribe in purchase of land, for education and tribal welfare and burial programs, he said.

3 BELIEVED DEAD IN GI CAR CRASH

Grand Island—Three persons were believed dead as the result of a traffic accident east of here late Friday night.

None was identified.

The Nebraska Safety Patrol at Grand Island said the accident occurred at 11:18 p.m. on the connecting road between U.S. 30 and U.S. 34, known as Shady Bend Road. The crash occurred three miles east of here.

Malcolm Man Held By Police

A 30-year-old Malcolm man is being held on a check forgery complaint in the city jail in connection with the theft of checks from Mahoney's IGA Food store in Bethany May 22.

Lincoln police Lt. Merle Hesser said the man also admitted involvement in a burglary attempt in which no money was taken. The attempted burglary was at a service station.

Corn Belt Rocket Leaves Rails; 22 Persons Injured

Marseilles, Ill. (AP)—A Rock Island Railroad 14-car passenger train, the Corn Belt Rocket, derailed in downtown Marseilles Friday night and 22 persons were injured, eight of them hospitalized.

The train was en route from Omaha to Chicago.

There were no reports of fatalities.

There was no immediate assessment of the cause of the accident. The sheriff's office in Ottawa said 10 of the cars were derailed, but were not overturned.

Called Immediately

Police had discovered the danger area about 8:20 Thursday evening and had immediately called the Paving Repair Department requesting it to put up flares and barricades at the hole.

Police were told by the department that the hole was not dug by the city and that the police should locate whoever dug the hole and get them to put up the flares.

Officer Gordon Cox tried to arrange the two flares at the hole to provide more adequate protection. Police records show the time of the accident as 9:54 p.m.

Henry Holst, deputy city attorney, said he did not know who from the Paving Repair department had told police to contact the people who dug the hole.

Miller, contractor who had dug the hole, said the regulations of the Paving Repair Department specify that anyone who has a permit to make an excavation must call the department before 3 p.m., and if the department accepts the call, responsibility for protecting the excavation goes to the department.

Relayed

Miller said he called around 2 p.m. Thursday. Calls on such matters go through the city inspection department, which records the time calls come from contractors and the time that the call is relayed to the Paving Repair Department.

Lee Boehmer, head of the Paving Repair department, said a permit had been issued to the Miller firm by the city plumbing department, and that his department had received a carbon copy of the permit.

Boehmer said he assumed the responsibility for protecting the excavation was Miller's.

Holst said since he did not know the exact responsibility for safety, as set down in the plumbing code, he would "rather not comment at this time."

Not Enough Time

Holst said he was sure that the code did cover safety responsibilities in connection with open excavations. He said he had not had sufficient time Friday to check the exact wording of the code and did not have a copy at his home.

Holst said the accident was the first occurance of this type in the six years he has worked for the city. He said the plumbing company had an insurance bond and policy to cover such situations.

3 BELIEVED DEAD IN GI CAR CRASH

Grand Island—Three persons were believed dead as the result of a traffic accident east of here late Friday night.

None was identified.

The Nebraska Safety Patrol at Grand Island said the accident occurred at 11:18 p.m. on the connecting road between U.S. 30 and U.S. 34, known as Shady Bend Road. The crash occurred three miles east of here.

Malcolm Man Held By Police

A 30-year-old Malcolm man is being held on a check forgery complaint in the city jail in connection with the theft of checks from Mahoney's IGA Food store in Bethany May 22.

Lincoln police Lt. Merle Hesser said the man also admitted involvement in a burglary attempt in which no money was taken. The attempted burglary was at a service station.

Corn Belt Rocket Leaves Rails; 22 Persons Injured

Marseilles, Ill. (AP)—A Rock Island Railroad 14-car passenger train, the Corn Belt Rocket, derailed in downtown Marseilles Friday night and 22 persons were injured, eight of them hospitalized.

The train was en route from Omaha to Chicago.

There were no reports of fatalities.

There was no immediate assessment of the cause of the accident. The sheriff's office in Ottawa said 10 of the cars were derailed, but were not overturned.

Charter Taking Shape

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Some meaty [illegible] were on the agenda of the most recent meeting of the City Charter Revision [illegible] most controversial [illegible] [illegible] of members of the [illegible] understand the need for [illegible] and full discussion.

The question in regard to utilities has more meaning today than ever in the past because the city is in the process of assuming the entire electric service within its corporate limits and in selected areas beyond. [illegible] utilities [illegible] of city government [illegible] running into the millions of dollars and directly affecting the lives of every citizen and the profits of every business and industry. At issue is whether the utilities, water, sewer and electricity shall be under the control and supervision of the mayor and City Council or a separate governmental subdivision.

Decision On Control

A solid argument can be built in behalf of both possibilities. There is the possibility of greater efficiency through a separate subdivision but there is greater public security through City Council jurisdiction. The latter now prevails.

Under the City Council, utility operations can drag because the council has neither the time nor ability to give utilities decisive management. It must do this through delegation of its authority and that works or fails depending very much upon the individuals involved.

On the other hand, a separate utilities operation offers no guarantees. Utilities must be coordinated with other city activities such as street construction and can enter into decisions affecting zoning, flood control, annexations, etc. If conflicts and deadlocks develop between city government and an independent utilities division, the public is the loser and this has happened in other areas. Also, there would not be the public scrutiny of utilities as a separate agency such as there would be with that operation under the City Council. The City Council and all of city government operates in a fish bowl! You can track down and carefully examine even a 50-cent city government purchase if you want to.

You can examine in detail the hiring of every individual and look with a fine tooth comb through every contract at the city government level. Every order that is issued and every agreement that is entered into is open to full public inspection. As a practical and at times, perhaps, a legal matter, this would not be the case with a separate utilities division. This is because the separate utilities division would have no one to account to but itself, even though this might mean a duly elected board of directors.

The lack of accountability makes the hiding of information a simple matter. This does not mean that such hiding would always be deliberate but it often makes little difference whether it is deliberate or not. The end result is lack of public knowledge and how it comes about is secondary.

The committee is justified in taking a lot of time in deciding this matter. It should think long and hard before establishing a separate utilities operation that would take this vital part of city government further away from the control of the people.

Increase Of Authority

The veto question is not especially complex one but it is controversial. The question is whether the City Council shall be able to override a veto by the mayor with a simple majority vote or whether a larger vote than that should be required. For more effective city administration through the mayor, at least a three-fourths majority vote to override the veto ought to be required. This still offers ample protection of the people but strengthens the mayor's authority and responsibility. If we give him no responsibility, we can hardly hold him responsible for things at election time.

The problem with City Council pay is that it would be impractical to raise it to the point where it would constitute a full-time job and anything less than that is useless. The current rate of $20 per weekly meeting attended cannot be much improved. The caliber of City Council candidacies would not be altered much unless we went to full-time pay of more than $100 per week and that could not be justified in Lincoln at this time.

Time For Reflection

Falling as it does this year on Sunday, Memorial Day, 1965, involves an entire weekend. This evening, there will be services on the part of some groups in memory of those who died in the service of their country. Most of the observance of the day will take place on Monday, however.

Thus, it is a so-called long weekend. It will be used to a large extent as a time for personal pleasure and enjoyment and no issue can be taken with that. But the purpose of the day should not be entirely forgotten.

Unfortunately, this nation is now engaged in actions throughout the world that give us even further cause to contemplate the sacrifices of the past. These sacrifices, of life itself, are being made by U.S. servicemen today in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

We stop to consider this and set aside a special day in memory of such sacrifice because we value human life. This is a value we never want to lose. When and if that value should ever be lost, we would be no different from the communists who consider the state as the purpose of all being.

What we contemplate over this weekend is the very fundamental nature of our way of life and our politics. Our concern for human life is the thing that sets us apart from many forces in the world. Without this concern, the forces of tyranny and destruction would run rampant throughout the world. Thus it is that Memorial Day does and should have a high place among us.

A Time To Prove It

At the opening of the long Memorial Day weekend Nebraska had 107 highway fatalities since last New Year's Day.

That was a few less than the year before but still it is a tragic state of facts. Probably all of the fatal accidents were preventable.

Between now and Tuesday the accident odds will be high. The weather is good; the holiday longer than usual and families will take to the highways. How wonderful it would be if the Nebraska weekend came to a close without a serious accident!

It could be that way if everyone so willed it. All that is required is cars that are fully roadworthy and drivers who are careful. That is not a big price to pay for survival.

Perhaps the best and most appropriate television program on highway safety will appear June 2 at 7 p.m. on the Nebraska educational television network. It asks the question of why did 48,000 Americans die on the roads last year and then will proceed for an hour examining road conditions, cars and drivers.

Its hour of detailed study is worth the time of everyone who drives or rides in a car.

The program comes at the close of the weekend. Perhaps it would save some lives if it occurred earlier. But a careful Nebraska can arrange it so that no one will have to miss the program and that's what we are driving at.

Meantime, it is well to remember that the Memorial Day holiday is the first of at least four very dangerous times of the year. There will be the Fourth of July period, the Thanksgiving time and Christmas.

Safety is something to be practiced every day, but more especially during periods of great danger.

Ideas, Not Ideologies

From the Christian Science Monitor

We hope that in the six months which have passed since the November election most of the ideological dust which swirled around the Republican Party has settled. For only if it has, can the party see clearly to draft those policies which can provide the basis for a strong comeback on a national scale.

The November outcome left the Republicans not only at one of their lowest ebbs in history but also with deep ideological differences. Nor can they hope to rectify the first until they are ready to heal the second. Only through the establishment of their own "consensus" can the Republicans look forward with any measure of confidence to a major resurgence of political power and effectiveness.

First and foremost is the need to decide on a program which is, as Arthur Larson put it, "both right and capable of winning." This means determining what is politically feasible in this day and age as well as what is consistent with the broad set of political and economic ideals which form the groundwork of Republicanism.

Chairman Ray Bliss appears to be pushing for a moderate, middle-of-the-road course. We believe that such a course has the best chance of restoring Republican strength and appeal. The November election showed that extreme conservatism has little chance in America today. Similarly any Republican effort to ape the more advanced positions of the Democratic Party can only end by strengthening the latter and not the former.

Thus it is to be hoped that the tentative policy statements to be presented at the big June 1 Republican gathering in Washington will be such as to clarify and strengthen the Republican image throughout the country.

Several months ago we suggested in these columns that the Republican Party, which has long advocated greater individual initiative, make a special effort to find local and regional solutions to local and regional problems.

DREW PEARSON

Mississippi Solons Helped

Editors Note: Drew Pearson's column is written today by his associate, Jack Anderson.

WASHINGTON—It looks as if Speaker John McCormack's backstage slowdown to protect the Mississippi congressmen from being unseated is already getting results.

Rita Schwerner, widow of one of the three freedom workers murdered at Philadelphia, Miss., found this out when she and other civil rights leaders called on Ralph Roberts, Clerk of the House of Representatives, to ask when the report of the House Administration Committee on seating the Mississippians would be reported out. The amiable Mr. Roberts indicated that it would take many months.

"The 1947 Reorganization Act of the House requires that it be reported out by July 4," Mrs. Schwerner told him.

"Oh, we don't pay any attention to that," replied the affable clerk of the House.

"Have you had any other cases similar to this since the 1947 act was passed?" asked William Higgs, an attorney for the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party.

"One," replied Roberts after a little thought. "Usually these cases go on into the second session of Congress—if they ever come out of committee at all."

Obviously he was in no hurry to have the House vote just after the Senate debated the Negro voting rights bill. It's on this question of Mississippi's refusal to permit Negroes to vote last November that the move has been made to unseat the Mississippi congressmen. Naturally delay is in their favor. The temper of Congress right now, after the Selma beatings and the Klan trial for the murder of Mrs. Liuzzo, would be to unseat them.

American officials recently seized upon a picture of Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, the Dominican rebel leader, with a clenched fist as evidence of his alleged pro-communist leanings. Then someone pointed out that the San Juan Star, the paper that first published the picture, also ran a photograph of President Johnson with a clenched first in the same edition . . . government researchers have adapted the "explosive puffing process" used to make puffed wheat and puffed rice to produce other food. They have been able to create instant blueberries, apples, carrots and beets.

DORIS FLEESON

GOP Will Seek A New Identity

WASHINGTON — The Republican party will renew its search for its identity here next Tuesday. Five task forces will present reports on major issues to a National Committee Forum in what amounts to an effort to modernize the 1964 platform.

Former President Eisenhower and Barry Goldwater will cheer them on, plus the usual array of party luminaries, including Richard Nixon and the three governors most often mentioned as possible presidents, George Romney of Michigan, William Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson Rockefeller of New York.

It is a unity facade and care has been taken not to fracture it with sensational doctrine. The task force reports are expected principally to remind the country that Republicans also are thinking about current problems.

There is little more really that can be accomplished at present. Prosperity still reigns; the President's success with domestic programs dazzles the public and all but silences Congress. The disquiet about foreign policy is chiefly among Democrats, and Johnson's moves are supported by Republican congressional leadership.

☆ ☆ ☆

In this situation it does not matter very much that congressional Republican leaders occasionally take stands that governors consider politically risky. Senate Leader Everett Dirksen's cooperation with the President does not make him a renegade in party eyes.

Tuesday's report on monetary and fiscal policy may shed some light on what steps Republicans are prepared to take to get back the many big businessmen who defected to Johnson last year. He was more their style than recent Democratic presidents and Adlai Stevenson, but what is more significant, they do not now complain about government money management or budget deficits deliberately incurred to spur the economy.

The old shibboleths will hardly lure them back to their old allegiance, certainly without a rather considerable recession. Democrats, even liberals, prefer not to think about what Johnson might do in order to prevent that happening, but they would no doubt accept it.

One issue resolutely avoided in formal statements by the national committee is what to do about the South. The committee supports voting rights, but its attitude is that its Southern conservatives do not present an immediate problem to the party. This department is left largely to the outspoken former chairman, Sen. Thruston Morton of Kentucky, who shares the conviction of National Chairman Ray Bliss that the presidency can only be won in the big cities.

The new big-city face now smiling from so many magazine pages, Republican Rep. John Lindsay, candidate for mayor of New York, emphatically will not be present Tuesday. He is happy to have the endorsement of New York Republican county leaders, but he knows and they know that they have no muscle in the wards. He is even fending off Eisenhower, a new experience for the general.

Yet Republicans here are happy about Lindsay, for they know they need him.

ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

With probably two months to go the 1965 Legislature stands an excellent chance of making itself as the most progressive Unicameral in memory.

Walton

Strangely enough, the federal court order demanding reapportionment could alter this Legislature's progressive stand.

It's all in the matter of four-year terms.

Twenty-five senators were elected to four-year terms in 1964, but those terms may have been voided by the court order.

A four-year term diminishes some of the pressure which constituents can bring upon their lawmakers. The senator with a two-year term must face the electorate in 1966; the four-year termers thought they were out of the woods until 1968.

How many of the senators will alter their positions as a result of the likely voiding of present four-year terms can only be a matter of conjecture.

Some have already privately made it clear that the change will have no effect on their voting, even if it costs them their seats in the Unicameral.

All of this raises the obvious question of whether the thus-far progressive stand of the 1965 Legislature runs contrary to public sentiment.

And, so far, the answer seems to be largely negative. There has been no great outcry against increases in public spending to meet public needs, and this has been the hallmark of the 1965 session.

Senators went home for an Easter recess about the time they were approving large increases in the state budget. And their position was not altered when they came back to Lincoln.

Now, not long after they have approved a state income tax bill on first reading lawmakers are home again—this time for a Memorial Day recess.

They come back next Wednesday. And the income tax bill will be waiting on select file for amendments, and for decision on a new motion to kill.

Next week's vote could be the decisive one.

Dick Proud made an impassioned speech to his colleagues in the Legislature this week to explain that he was wearing striped bib overalls to remind him and others that he and they are the people's representatives.

But insiders had already passed the word that Proud had donned the overalls to win a bet.

When Proud finished his performance, Terry Carpenter took the floor to offer his own personal critique: "Those who can throw it the farthest and pile it the highest ought to be able to dress anyway they please."

☆ ☆

Jules Burbach "appropriated" a cigar from the desk of George Syas late one afternoon this week after the Legislature had adjourned for the day and Syas had gone home.

Moments later, it exploded in Burbach's face.

Seems a third senator had loaded a cigar and left it for Syas.

There's a moral there some place.

Phil Sorensen told 1,700 Democrats at the party's Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in Lincoln that he cannot understand why some elected officials avoid giving answers on the state income tax proposal.

Whenever he is asked where he stands on the issue, Sorensen said, he is quick to reply: "Where are you from?"

☆ ☆

Bits and pieces.

—When Sen. Henry Pedersen Jr. declared during lengthy floor debate on an appropriations bill that "money talks," Sorensen was heard to mutter into his microphone:

"If money talks, this Legislature must be rich."

—A non-controversial bill, one senator told his colleagues, is a bill which nobody understands.

—On Monday, the U.S. Supreme Court threw out Rep. Glenn Cunningham's bill to control distribution of Communist literature through the mails as violating the U.S. Constitution. The next night, Cunningham was among those honored by the Americans for Constitutional Action for defending and preserving the Constitution.

—Tom Pansing told the Rhode Island constitutional convention this week that he would estimate that more than 80% of all bills introduced in the Nebraska Legislature are "initiated and first drafted by lobbyists."

—Perhaps looking ahead to the 1966 campaign, Frank Barrett listed accomplishments of the Morrison administration in this order when he briefly addressed the Demo J-J fete: agricultural research, highway construction, tourism, industrial development, educationl television, mental health and "rekindling the fire of state pride."

—Newest state centennial celebration suggestion: Let the Legislature provide the show, but instead of taking it on the road, invite Nebraskans by community to Lincoln to view the proceedings. It can be very entertaining.

—Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston each will make about $600,000 for one minute of "work" this week, more than most of us will earn in a lifetime. Well, that's show-biz. Isn't it?

Honor To MacArthur

Fremont, Neb.

It is time to remember the words of General MacArthur, when he said:

"Listen not to voices that are raised against our national traditions, be they from the one political party or from the other. Visit upon them a righteous scorn born of the past sacrifices of your fighting sons and daughters. Repudiate them in the market place, on the platform, from the pulpit. Be proud to be called patriots or nationalists or what you will, if it means that you love your country above all else, and will place your life, if need be, at the service of your flag."

Brave and courageous hearts are needed as never before if we are to oppose with success the forces of evil that threaten us. The smug, the cynical, the takers and the grabbers, the spoilers have already lost the world Douglas MacArthur fought for. In a world when too many are ready to turn away or give up at the first risk, MacArthur returned.

America needs more men like General MacArthur. Neither buildings nor monuments of stone are needed to memorialize the spirit of this great patriot. He will never "fade away."

Let us honor all our fighting men, living or dead, on this Memorial Day, 1965.

Red Influence

Hastings, Neb.

Recently someone asked whether or not our colleges were being propagandized with communistic influence. That question could have been answered in the affirmative 40 years or more ago, as I happen to know that Red leaflets were being distributed in Hastings College at that time. Surely, then, it was also being done in larger colleges also.

Consequently, some of our [illegible] professors are the "net result" of such propaganda. These students have graduated and become heads of our colleges today. The toleration of riots and other un-American stunts being pulled by many students are also an aftermath of the Red influence of years back.

Some of the rulings of our Supreme Court read just like a sequel to the story. All of those students of years back who were "Red-infested" are not professors but some are in other high places in our government today.

Maybe Nikita won't bury us, but there are plenty of would-be citizens right in our midst who would help do the job, if it ever should come to that.

Proverb Of Cobbler

Lincoln, Neb.

We should all fully support the wise foreign policy of President Johnson. Any weakness in this country will only encourage the communists in further aggression.

Here is a recent short story. Latvia in the Baltic lost her independence after a period of bright life and progress. When Soviet Russia broke a treaty and occupied this country in 1940, a University of Latvia professor became the president of the puppet government. He is now dead, but the Latvian people have only one memory and one name for him—"The Traitor."

The Germans have an old proverb: "Cobbler, stay at your shoes." The professors, alas, often forget this and men who are wise in their own speciality think they can be omnipotent everywhere. This is where the trouble starts.

People's Choice

Lincoln, Neb.

It has been said that if LB797 passes the Nebraska Legislature, Governor Morrison will not veto the bill but instead he will let it become law without his signature. If Governor Morrison is opposed to the bill, he should veto it, giving his reasons for the action.

I think, too, that if this bill does become a law, the people of Nebraska should have a chance to decide in the 1966 general election whether they want to adopt a state income tax or keep the present state property tax.

It is also hoped that if this issue is placed on the ballot, it will be worded in such a way that everyone can understand for what they are voting.

Charter Taking Shape

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Some meaty subjects were on the agenda of the most recent meeting of the City Charter Revision Committee. The most controversial issues of all were left unsettled in deference to further study and discussion. And when you look at such things as the organization of the city's utilities, the veto power of the mayor and the pay of members of the City Council, you can understand the need for much study and full discussion.

Decision On Control

The question in regard to utilities has more meaning today than ever in the past because the city is in the process of assuming the entire electric service within its corporate limits and in selected areas beyond. Even without this, utilities have been the largest single area of city government operation—an operation running into the millions of dollars and directly affecting the lives of every citizen and the profits of every business and industry. At issue is whether the utilities, water, sewer and electricity, shall be under the control and supervision of the mayor and City Council or a separate governmental subdivision.

The lack of accountability makes the hiding of information a simple matter. This does not mean that such hiding would always be deliberate but it often makes little difference whether it is deliberate or not. The end result is lack of public knowledge and how it comes about is secondary.

The committee is justified in taking a lot of time in deciding this matter. It should think long and hard before establishing a separate utilities operation that would take this vital part of city government further away from the control of the people.

Falling as it does this year on Sunday, Memorial Day, 1965, involves an entire weekend. This evening, there will be services on the part of some groups in memory of those who died in the service of their country. Most of the observance of the day will take place on Monday, however.

Thus, it is a so-called long weekend. It will be used to a large extent as a time for personal pleasure and enjoyment and no issue can be taken with that. But the purpose of the day should not be entirely forgotten.

Unfortunately, this nation is now engaged in actions throughout the world that give us even further cause to contemplate the sacrifices of the past. These sacrifices, of life itself, are being made by U.S. servicemen today in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

We stop to consider this and set aside a special day in memory of such sacrifice because we value human life. This is a value we never want to lose. When and if that value should ever be lost, we would be no different from the communists who consider the state as the purpose of all being.

What we contemplate over this weekend is the very fundamental nature of our way of life and our politics. Our concern for human life is the thing that sets us apart from many forces in the world. Without this concern, the forces of tyranny and destruction would run rampant throughout the world. Thus it is that Memorial Day does and should have a high place among us.

A Time To Prove It

At the opening of the long Memorial Day weekend Nebraska had 107 highway fatalities since last New Year's Day.

That was a few less than the year before but still it is a tragic state of facts. Probably all of the fatal accidents were preventable.

Between now and Tuesday the accident odds will be high. The weather is good; the holiday longer than usual and families will take to the highways. How wonderful it would be if the Nebraska weekend came to a close without a serious accident!

It could be that way if everyone so willed it. All that is required is cars that are fully roadworthy and drivers who are careful. That is not a big price to pay for survival.

Perhaps the best and most appropriate television program on highway safety will appear June 2 at 7 p.m. on the Nebraska educational television network. It asks the question of why did 48,000 Americans die on the roads last year and then will proceed for an hour examining road conditions, cars and drivers.

Its hour of detailed study is worth the time of everyone who drives or rides in a car.

The program comes at the close of the weekend. Perhaps it would save some lives if it occurred earlier. But a careful Nebraska can arrange it so that no one will have to miss the program and that's what we are driving at.

Meantime, it is well to remember that the Memorial Day holiday is the first of at least four very dangerous times of the year. There will be the Fourth of July period, the Thanksgiving time and Christmas.

Safety is something to be practiced every day, but more especially during periods of great danger.

Ideas, Not Ideologies

From the Christian Science Monitor

We hope that in the six months which have passed since the November election most of the ideological dust which swirled around the Republican Party has settled. For only if it has, can the party see clearly to draft those policies which can provide the basis for a strong comeback on a national scale.

The November outcome left the Republicans not only at one of their lowest ebbs in history but also with deep ideological differences. Nor can they hope to rectify the first until they are ready to heal the second. Only through the establishment of their own "consensus" can the Republicans look forward with any measure of confidence to a major resurgence of political power and effectiveness.

First and foremost is the need to decide on a program which is, as Arthur Larson put it, "both right and capable of winning." This means determining what is politically feasible in this day and age as well as what is consistent with the broad set of political and economic ideals which form the groundwork of Republicanism.

Chairman Ray Bliss appears to be pushing for a moderate, middle-of-the-road course. We believe that such a course has the best chance of restoring Republican strength and appeal. The November election showed that extreme conservatism has little chance in America today. Similarly any Republican effort to ape the more advanced positions of the Democratic Party can only end by strengthening the latter and not the former.

Thus it is to be hoped that the tentative policy statements to be presented at the big June 1 Republican gathering in Washington will be such as to clarify and strengthen the Republican image throughout the country.

Several months ago we suggested in these columns that the Republican Party, which has long advocated greater individual initiative, make a special effort to find local and regional solutions to local and regional problems.

DREW PEARSON

Mississippi Solons Helped

Editors Note: Drew Pearson's column is written today by his associate, Jack Anderson.

WASHINGTON—It looks as if Speaker John McCormack's backstage slowdown to protect the Mississippi congressmen from being unseated is already getting results.

Rita Schwerner, widow of one of the three freedom workers murdered at Philadelphia, Miss., found this out when she and other civil rights leaders called on Ralph Roberts, Clerk of the House of Representatives, to ask when the report of the House Administration Committee on seating the Mississippians would be reported out. The amiable Mr. Roberts indicated that it would take many months.

"The 1947 Reorganization Act of the House requires that it be reported out by July 4," Mrs. Schwerner told him.

"Oh, we don't pay any attention to that," replied the affable clerk of the House.

"Have you had any other cases similar to this since the 1947 act was passed?" asked William Higgs, an attorney for the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party.

"One," replied Roberts after a little thought. "Usually these cases go on into the second session of Congress—if they ever come out of committee at all."

Obviously he was in no hurry to have the House vote just after the Senate debated the Negro voting rights bill. It's on this question of Mississippi's refusal to permit Negroes to vote last November that the move has been made to unseat the Mississippi congressmen. Naturally delay is in their favor. The temper of Congress right now, after the Selma beatings and the Klan trial for the murder of Mrs. Liuzzo, would be to unseat them.

American officials recently seized upon a picture of Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, the Dominican rebel leader, with a clenched fist as evidence of his alleged pro-communist leanings. Then someone pointed out that the San Juan Star, the paper that first published the picture, also ran a photograph of President Johnson with a clenched first in the same edition . . . government researchers have adapted the "explosive puffing process" used to make puffed wheat and puffed rice to produce other food. They have been able to create instant blueberries, apples, carrots and beets.

GOP Will Seek A New Identity

WASHINGTON — The Republican party will renew its search for its identity here next Tuesday. Five task forces will present reports on major issues to a National Committee Forum in what amounts to an effort to modernize the 1964 platform.

Former President Eisenhower and Barry Goldwater will cheer them on, plus the usual array of party luminaries, including Richard Nixon and the three governors most often mentioned as possible presidents, George Romney of Michigan, William Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson Rockefeller of New York.

It is a unity facade and care has been taken not to fracture it with sensational doctrine. The task force reports are expected principally to remind the country that Republicans also are thinking about current problems.

There is little more really that can be accomplished at present. Prosperity still reigns; the President's success with domestic programs dazzles the public and all but silences Congress. The disquiet about foreign policy is chiefly among Democrats, and Johnson's moves are supported by Republican congressional leadership.

☆ ☆ ☆

In this situation it does not matter very much that congressional Republican leaders occasionally take stands that governors consider politically risky. Senate Leader Everett Dirksen's cooperation with the President does not make him a renegade in party eyes.

Tuesday's report on monetary and fiscal policy may shed some light on what steps Republicans are prepared to take to get back the many big businessmen who defected to Johnson last year. He was more their style than recent Democratic presidents and Adlai Stevenson, but what is more significant, they do not now complain about government money management or budget deficits deliberately incurred to spur the economy.

The old shibboleths will hardly lure them back to their old allegiance, certainly without a rather considerable recession. Democrats, even liberals, prefer not to think about what Johnson might do in order to prevent that happening, but they would no doubt accept it.

One issue resolutely avoided in formal statements by the national committee is what to do about the South. The committee supports voting rights, but its attitude is that its Southern conservatives do not present an immediate problem to the party. This department is left largely to the outspoken former chairman, Sen. Thruston Morton of Kentucky, who shares the conviction of National Chairman Ray Bliss that the presidency can only be won in the big cities.

The new big-city face now smiling from so many magazine pages, Republican Rep. John Lindsay, candidate for mayor of New York, emphatically will not be present Tuesday. He is happy to have the endorsement of New York Republican county leaders, but he knows and they know that they have no muscle in the wards. He is even fending off Eisenhower, a new experience for the general.

Yet Republicans here are happy about Lindsay, for they know they need him.

ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

With probably two months to go, the 1965 Legislature stands an excellent chance of marking itself as the most progressive Unicameral in memory.

Walton

Strangely enough, the federal court order demanding reapportionment could alter this Legislature's progressive stand.

It's all in the matter of four-year terms.

Twenty-five senators were elected to four-year terms in 1964, but those terms may have been voided by the court order.

A four-year term diminishes some of the pressure which constituents can bring upon their lawmakers. The senator with a two-year term must face the electorate in 1966; the four-year termers thought they were out of the woods until 1968.

How many of the senators will alter their positions as a result of the likely voiding of present four-year terms can only be a matter of conjecture.

Some have already privately made it clear that the change will have no effect on their voting, even if it costs them their seats in the Unicameral.

All of this raises the obvious question of whether the thus-far progressive stand of the 1965 Legislature runs contrary to public sentiment.

And, so far, the answer seems to be largely negative. There has been no great outcry against increases in public spending to meet public needs, and this has been the hallmark of the 1965 session.

Senators went home for an Easter recess about the time they were approving large increases in the state budget. And their position was not altered when they came back to Lincoln.

Now, not long after they have approved a state income tax bill on first reading, lawmakers are home again—this time for a Memorial Day recess.

They come back next Wednesday. And the income tax bill will be waiting on select file for amendments, and for decision on a new motion to kill.

Next week's vote could be the decisive one.

☆ ☆ ☆

Dick Proud made an impassioned speech to his colleagues in the Legislature this week to explain that he was wearing striped bib overalls to remind him, and others, that he, and they, are the people's representatives.

But insiders had already passed the word that Proud had donned the overalls to win a bet.

When Proud finished his performance, Terry Carpenter took the floor to offer his own personal critique: "Those who can throw it the farthest and pile it the highest ought to be able to dress anyway they please."

☆ ☆ ☆

Jules Burbach "appropriated" a cigar from the desk of George Syas late one afternoon this week after the Legislature had adjourned for the day and Syas had gone home.

Moments later, it exploded in Burbach's face.

Seems a third senator had loaded a cigar and left if for Syas.

There's a moral there some place.

Phil Sorensen told 1,700 Democrats at the party's Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in Lincoln that he cannot understand why some elected officials avoid giving answers on the state income tax proposal.

Whenever he is asked where he stands on the issue, Sorensen said, he is quick to reply: "Where are you from?"

☆ ☆ ☆

Bits and pieces:

—When Sen. Henry Pedersen Jr. declared during lengthy floor debate on an appropriations bill that "money talks," Sorensen was heard to mutter into his microphone:

"If money talks, this Legislature must be rich."

—A non-controversial bill, one senator told his colleagues, is a bill which nobody understands.

—On Monday, the U.S. Supreme Court threw out Rep. Glenn Cunningham's bill to control distribution of Communist literature through the mails as violating the U.S. Constitution. The next night, Cunningham was among those honored by the Americans for Constitutional Action for defending and preserving the Constitution.

—Tom Pansing told the Rhode Island constitutional convention this week that he would estimate that more than 80% of all bills introduced in the Nebraska Legislature are "initiated and first drafted by lobbyists."

—Perhaps looking ahead to the 1966 campaign, Frank Barrett listed accomplishments of the Morrison administration in this order when he briefly addressed the Demo J-J fete: agricultural research, highway construction, tourism, industrial development, educationl television, mental health and "rekindling the fire of state pride."

—Newest state centennial celebration suggestion: Let the Legislature provide the show, but instead of taking it on the road, invite Nebraskans by community to Lincoln to view the proceedings. It can be very entertaining.

—Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston each will make about $600,000 for one minute of "work" this week, more than most of us will earn in a lifetime. Well, that's showbiz. Isn't it?

Honor To MacArthur

Fremont, Neb.

It is time to remember the words of General MacArthur, when he said:

"Listen not to voices that are raised against our national traditions, be they from the one political party or from the other. Visit upon them a righteous scorn born of the past sacrifices of your fighting sons and daughters. Repudiate them in the market place, on the platform, from the pulpit. Be proud to be called patriots or nationalists or what you will, if it means that you love your country above all else, and will place your life, if need be, at the service of your flag."

Brave and courageous hearts are needed as never before if we are to oppose with success the forces of evil that threaten us. The smug, the cynical, the takers and the grabbers, the spoilers have already lost the world Douglas MacArthur fought for. In a world when too many are ready to turn away or give up at the first risk, MacArthur returned.

America needs more men like General MacArthur. Neither buildings nor monuments of stone are needed to memorialize the spirit of this great patriot. He will never "fade away."

Let us honor all our fighting men, living or dead, on this Memorial Day, 1965.

Red Influence

Hastings, Neb.

Recently someone asked whether or not our colleges were being propagandized with communistic influence. That question could have been answered in the affirmative 40 years or more ago, as I happen to know that Red leaflets were being distributed in Hastings College at that time. Surely, then, it was also being done in larger colleges also.

Consequently, some of our present-day professors are the "net result" of such propaganda. Those students have graduated and become heads of our colleges today. The toleration of riots and other un-American stunts being pulled by many students are also an aftermath of the Red influence of years back.

Some of the rulings of our Supreme Court read just like a sequel to the story. All of those students of years back who were "Red-infested" are not professors but some are in other high places in our government today.

Maybe Nikita won't bury us, but there are plenty of would-be citizens right in our midst who would help do the job, if it ever should come to that.

Proverb Of Cobbler

Lincoln, Neb.

We should all fully support the wise foreign policy of President Johnson. Any weakness in this country will only encourage the communists in further aggression.

Here is a recent short story. Latvia in the Baltic lost her independence after a period of bright life and progress. When Soviet Russia broke a treaty and occupied this country in 1940, a University of Latvia professor became the president of the puppet government. He is now dead, but the Latvian people have only one memory and one name for him—"The Traitor."

The Germans have an old proverb: "Cobbler, stay at your shoes." The professors, alas, often forget this and men who are wise in their own speciality think they can be omnipotent everywhere. This is where the trouble starts.

People's Choice

Lincoln, Neb.

It has been said that if LB797 passes the Nebraska Legislature, Governor Morrison will not veto the bill but instead he will let it become law without his signature. If Governor Morrison is opposed to the bill, he should veto it, giving his reasons for the action.

I think, too, that if this bill does become a law, the people of Nebraska should have a chance to decide in the 1966 general election whether they want to adopt a state income tax or keep the present state property tax.

It is also hoped that if this issue is placed on the ballot, it will be worded in such a way that everyone can understand for what they are voting.

Food And Drink Are Fair Exchange For Fun And Social Activity

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. "I took up dramatics at 60 and the past three years have been my happiest, with a new circle of show business friends who are apt to drop by our apartment any hour of the day and night. My husband says they're just interested in our well-stocked bar and refrigerator, but I say who cares. What do you say?"

A. I say food and drink are a fair excange for fun and social activity. Folks in show business are notoriously hungry and thirsty. But they are also lively, gregarious, stimulating and interesting to be around.

Q. "After reading that old folks should go back to college, I signed up for three courses at a local college. But at 72 my brain cells must have dried up, for I don't even know what they're talking about in class."

A. Every elder isn't college material. If it's all over your head, modify your educational goals by enrolling for other classes that are available in most communities, such as arts and crafts classes at the Y, or book reviews and current events sessions in adult education programs at your high school.

Q. "Why are older people so reluctant to try air travel? My parents in their 70's have an absolutely closed mind on the subject. They won't visit their children scattered around the country because they find rail and auto travel too exhausting—and they refuse to fly."

A. We all have closed minds on various subjects until someone persuades us to let some enlightenment enter. Be more persuasive and try to get some of their closest friends to accompany them on a flight. Most elders who give flying a try become enthusiasts.

Q. "A speaker at our college club recently spent an hour discussing the dreary aspects of age, enumerating such dreadful things as loneliness, illness and poverty. Most of us in the audience were in our 40's or 50's and we came away miserably depressed."

A. It's regrettable when speakers pull all the emotional stops in discussing the liabilities of age. There's nothing constructive in this approach to the subject. What we need are speakers to carry the message that the years ahead offer many favorable things to those who take care of their health and retain optimistic attitudes, including (a) greater leisure and (b) a sense of achievement in having survived past middle age.

Q. "What do you think of the maxim that says, 'It's later than you think?' I find it a very depressing philosophy which is hardly conducive to helping people find joy and pleasure in birthday parties."

A. It may have depressing overtones, but the maxim serves a good purpose, especially in its full form which says, "Enjoy yourself—it's later than you think." Many people cut off things which they should be doing today, and many coast along as if they're going to live forever. We need to be reminded occasionally that there's a limit to the life span and that it's vitally important that we derive satisfaction from each passing day.

Craft Still Uncommitted On Tax Issue, Expects Pressure

Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte, who describes himself as uncommitted on the state income tax issue, says he probably will be "pressured as much as any member in this Legislature."

Craft was one of the 29 lawmakers who voted to advance Lincoln Sen. Hal Bauer's LB797 from general file on its first floor test recently.

The senaor said it's the best version of an income tax bill he has seen in the Legislature. But he said his position on it is still "fluid" and he is in position to go either way on the bill.

"At first there was some real strong pressure to vote for it," Craft said. "I thought the opposition ought to be heard from, too, so I dropped the word that the people against the bill ought to give me some pressure on the other side. As a result I'll probably be pressured as much as any member in this Legislature."

Craft's invitation to income tax opponents to make themselves heard apparently has borne fruit. Several senators reported receiving copies of North Platte petitions against LB797, with the name of Sen. Craft's wife listed as a signer.

Craft said that no matter how he ultimately votes on the bill, he will offend some of his constituents. In Lincoln County, he noted, roughly one-third of the population is agricultural, roughly one-third is related in a laboring way to railroad industry, and the remaining one-third is urban.

Farm organizations and agricultural interests have been leading the battle for the income tax.

John Van Cleaf is the Star carrier-salesman for the area from "F" to "J" Streets and from 18th to 21st Streets. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Van Cleaf and lives at 2112 "C" Street. Since John has taken over his route, his parents feel that he has learned to better organize his spare time and study schedule. John has been going to bed a lot earlier now as he likes to get up early to do his route. When he finishes his route, he has time to do any studying he might have or to take a short nap before leaving for school.

John

John is 12 years old and is now completing the sixth grade at Prescott School. Although he likes all of his subjects, if he were to pick a favorite, it would be arithmetic. In his spare time, John builds model cars, works on Boy Scout activities and projects, and listens to records. Adding records to his collection takes up part of John's $30 profit. Most of his profit, however, is being saved for his college education. He has not decided on any particular field that he would like to study, but he has ample time yet to decide that. In whatever area it might be, he will probably do his work at the University of Nebraska.

By giving good service, John has found it fairly easy to acquire new customers. Keeping the customers satisfied by delivering and collecting promptly and putting the paper where the people want it has proved to be the best advertisement for John.

If it's all over your head, modify your educational goals by enrolling for other classes that are available in most communities, such as arts and crafts classes at the Y, or book reviews and current events sessions in adult education programs at your high school.

Q. "Why are older people so reluctant to try air travel? My parents in their 70's have an absolutely closed mind on the subject. They won't visit their children scattered around the country because they find rail and auto travel too exhausting—and they refuse to fly."

A. We all have closed minds on various subjects until someone persuades us to let some enlightenment enter. Be more persuasive and try to get some of their closest friends to accompany them on a flight. Most elders who give flying a try become enthusiasts.

Q. "A speaker at our college club recently spent an hour discussing the dreary aspects of age, enumerating such dreadful things as loneliness, illness and poverty. Most of us in the audience were in our 40's or 50's and we came away miserably depressed."

A. It's regrettable when speakers pull all the emotional stops in discussing the liabilities of age. There's nothing constructive in this approach to the subject. What we need are speakers to carry the message that the years ahead offer many favorable things to those who take care of their health and retain optimistic attitudes, including (a) greater leisure and (b) a sense of achievement in having survived past middle age.

Q. "What do you think of the maxim that says, 'It's later than you think?' I find it a very depressing philosophy which is hardly conducive to helping people find joy and pleasure in birthday parties."

A. It may have depressing overtones, but the maxim serves a good purpose, especially in its full form which says, "Enjoy yourself—it's later than you think." Many people cut off things which they should be doing today, and many coast along as if they're going to live forever. We need to be reminded occasionally that there's a limit to the life span and that it's vitally important that we derive satisfaction from each passing day.

Craft Still Uncommitted On Tax Issue, Expects Pressure

Sen. Cecil Craft of North Platte, who describes himself as uncommitted on the state income tax issue, says he probably will be "pressured as much as any member in this Legislature."

Craft was one of the 29 lawmakers who voted to advance Lincoln Sen. Hal Bauer's LB797 from general file on its first floor test recently.

The senaor said it's the best version of an income tax bill he has seen in the Legislature. But he said his position on it is still "fluid" and he is in position to go either way on the bill.

"At first there was some real strong pressure to vote for it," Craft said. "I thought the opposition ought to be heard from, too, so I dropped the word that the people against the bill ought to give me some pressure on the other side. As a result I'll probably be pressured as much as any member in this Legislature."

Craft's invitation to income tax opponents to make themselves heard apparently has borne fruit. Several senators reported receiving copies of North Platte petitions against LB797, with the name of Sen. Craft's wife listed as a signer.

Craft said that no matter how he ultimately votes on the bill, he will offend some of his constituents. In Lincoln County, he noted, roughly one-third of the population is agricultural, roughly one-third is related in a laboring way to railroad industry, and the remaining one-third is urban.

Farm organizations and agricultural interests have been leading the battle for the income tax.

Meet Star Carrier John Van Cleaf

John Van Cleaf is the Star carrier-salesman for the area from "F" to "J" Streets and from 18th to 21st Streets. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Van Cleaf and lives at 2112 "C" Street. Since John has taken over his route, his parents feel that he has learned to better organize his spare time and study schedule. John has been going to bed a lot earlier now as he likes to get up early to do his route. When he finishes his route, he has time to do any studying he might have or to take a short nap before leaving for school.

John

John is 12 years old and is now completing the sixth grade at Prescott School. Although he likes all of his subjects, if he were to pick a favorite, it would be arithmetic. In his spare time, John builds model cars, works on Boy Scout activities and projects, and listens to records. Adding records to his collection takes up part of John's $30 profit. Most of his profit, however, is being saved for his college education. He has not decided on any particular field that he would like to study, but he has ample time yet to decide that. In whatever area it might be, he will probably do his work at the University of Nebraska.

By giving good service, John has found it fairly easy to acquire new customers. Keeping the customers satisfied by delivering and collecting promptly and putting the paper where the people want it has proved to be the best advertisement for John.

Paintings Are Burned

Naples, Italy (AP) — Seven family heirloom oil paintings valued at $24,000, which were stolen last summer from the villa of Count Paola Gaetini d'Aragona, have been found destroyed by fire in a country stable. A peasant was quoted by police as saying he burned them when police searched the area and that they had been given to him by three men now in prison for looting villas.

COMSAT Proposes Rates For Early Bird Transmitting

Washington (UPI) — The Communications Satellite Corp (COMSAT) proposed so-called wholesale rates Friday for use of its Early Bird satellite to transmit television programs and telephone calls

COMSAT filed a schedule of charges with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) that will take effect June 27 unless the FCC moves to suspend or alter them.

It said, however, that it may have to make changes of its own if the FCC decides that any other firm—foreign or domestic—could buy voice or TV transmissions directly instead of through a communications carrier

COMSAT suggested rates that "wholesale" buyers would pay—not the individual making a phone call, or the network arranging a trans-atlantic television transmission

It proposed a monthly charge of $4,200 for a two-way voice channel that could be used 16-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week to transmit telephone calls, data, photographs or other signals.

Higher charges were asked for television channels. Rates ranging from $2,400 to $3,825 for the first 30-minutes of TV transmission and from $475 to $710 for each additional 15-minutes were proposed. That would cover one-way channels.

Two-way channels and color television transmission would cost an additional 50% under the tariff filed with the FCC

COMSAT said it was the first schedule of charges ever filed with the federal agency to make available communications satellite channels. The charges are those that a common carrier—such as American Telephone & Telegraph—would pay for the use of the Early Bird.

Loudon, Becker Appointed To Charter Revision Group

Roy Loudon and Edward A Becker have been appointed to the Lincoln Charter Revision Committee, Mayor Dean Petersen announced Friday.

Loudon, is director of personnel at the University of Nebraska

Becker is a former City Councilman. He served on the 1959 charter revision committee.

The appointments bring to 20 the members of the current revision group, chaired by attorney Richard Hansen.

This week the committee approved a total of 10 charter revisions to submit to the voters, the first proposals acted on thus far.

Bowen Would End Municipal Tax Ceiling

Sen Kenneth Bowen of Red Cloud said Friday he is going to ask the Legislature to remove the ceiling on municipal property tax levies.

Sen. Bowen said he will attempt to so amend a bill, LB-261, which would raise the ceiling on property tax levying by second class cities and villages from 25 to 30 mills.

The measure was given 30-2 first round approval in the Legislature Thursday.

Sens. Bowen and Frank Nelson of O'Neill voted against it.

Bowen said the Legislature has removed levy ceilings for school districts and set no ceiling on the state property tax. To be consistent, he said, "let's take them all off"

2 Ministers' Conviction Is Affirmed

The conviction of two Omaha ministers on a charge of violating an Omaha ordinance by participating in a singing-marching demonstration at a city council meeting Oct. 27, 1963 was affirmed Friday by the State Supreme Court.

The Rev. Rudolph E. McNair and the Rev. Kelsey Jones, Omaha civil rights leaders, appealed after being found guilty after a jury trial of viiolating an ordinance against disturbing a lawful assemblage.

The ministers and some 47 others attending the council meeting stood up and began singing the National Anthem, then marched around the chamber singing "We Shall Overcome," according to the Supreme Court review of the evidence. Arrest of the ministers followed.

The Supreme Court said "the only logical inference" which can be drawn from the ministers' conduct is that they were carrying out a threat made by the Rev. Mr. Jones on Oct. 8, 1963 to go to extremes within their constitutional rights, if necessary, to impress on the council the need for a fair housing ordinance.

Can't Be Condoned

"What the appellants did cannot be condoned," the Supreme Court said.

"They cannot hide behind a patriotic song or a hymn, religious or otherwise, to take the law into their own hands to achieve their ultimate objective, regardless of the merits of that objective.

"If the law should wink at their conduct or hold that any right they might have must be preferred over the rights of their neighbors, we have no law. We have abdicated to the whim and caprice of the irresponsible enthusiasts. They virtually are elevated above the law. To do so is to take a step backward in the march of freedom, to return to anarchy or tyranny. This cannot be if we expect to preserve our individual freedoms.

"To depart from the rule of law is to return to the law of the jungle."

Ministers Contended

In appealing, the ministers contended that demonstrating is "petitioning" within the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and that as citizens, they had the right at any time to petition the council for a redress of their grievance.

Said the Supreme Court: "They do have a right to petition. But that right is not absolute. There is a time and place for everything . . .

"If everyone who wanted to coerce the city council could disrupt the council proceedings whenever, to accomplish their purpose, they felt moved to do so, the business of the city would stagnate."

In other rulings Friday the court:

—Held that a dishwasher who develops dermatitis from contact with soap and detergent used in his work has suffered an injury for which he is entitled to Workmen's Compensation.

The finding reversed the judgment of the Keith County District Court in an action brought by Jerry Ritter, an employe of Hoke's Cafe, Inc., at Ogallala.

Ritter's suit was brought against the Hawkeye-Security Insurance Co. as Workmen's Compensation liability insurance carrier for the cafe.

The Workmen's Compensation court first ruled in favor of Ritter, but on appeal, the district court held that the rash on Ritter's hands was not characteristic of, or peculiar to his job, and that the general public was subject to the same risks.

The Supreme Court, however, held that evidence establishes that "the cause and conditions of the disease are characteristic of and peculiar to the occupation of dishwashing, and that dishwashing involves a hazard which is greater than that which occurs in employment generally."

The court said Ritter is entitled to total temporary disability payments of $37 per week for nine weeks and two days, and medical expenses in the amount of $132.46.

—Affirmed the Stanton County District Court rape conviction of Kenneth Hunt, Robert Mussack, Arnold Vollbrecht and William Watts, each of whom was sentenced to four years in the Nebraska Penal Complex.

The Supreme Court said the jury verdict is sustained by the evidence and "we find no prejudicial error."

—Affirmed the conviction of Marguerite Sukovaty of Wilber on a charge of disturbing the peace by cursing and using abusive language against A. R. Sellmeyer, Wilber's chief of police. The incident was alleged to have occurred Sept. 8, 1963, on the front porch of Sellmeyer's home.

—Reversed in part and affirmed in part the Lancaster County District Court in a suit brought by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Berg against Midwest Laundry Equipment Corp. and Industrial Credit Co. to declare a retail installment contract void as usurious and recover payments made by them on the contract. It was the second appearance of the case in the Supreme Court, and the high court reversed the lower court only in relation to the status of certain down payments.

Opinion Told On Beekeepers' Truck License Plates

The State Justice Department held Friday that if LB105 is passed by the Legislature, beekeepers may obtain farm license plate registration for their motor trucks.

Otherwise, it said, they must apply for conventional licenses.

LB105 generally defines beekeeping and provides that any keeper of 50 or more hives of bees shall be classified as a farmer for all statutory purposes.

IT'S OPEN HOUSE at Your Church

Too long have we thought of The Way of the Cross as the "sad way." There may be sad moments along every noble path, but not all great ways are sad ways. The path of motherhood may have sad turns but it is a satisfying path. The path of education climbs some difficult and steep places but it is a thrilling way. Isaiah talked about the highway of God, where faithful servants passed on good errands. The way of the Cross is the way one takes when he serves God. It is not the "Sad Way" but rather the "Glad Way." Jesus came by way of the Cross, and the Book of Books on which the cross is planted, tells us to "take up our cross and follow." Whether atop the church steeple or on the highest mountain, it is The Glad Way. Heaven and God are at the end of that way. It is today aglow with the light of forgiving grace. It challenges the weak to walk by faith and offers pardon to those who fall at its foot. It is where Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." It is The Glad Way.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benefactions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the emphasis are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. You in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Too long have we thought of The Way of the Cross as the "sad way." There may be sad moments along every noble path, but not all great ways are sad ways. The path of motherhood may have sad turns but it is a satisfying path. The path of education climbs some difficult and steep places but it is a thrilling way. Isaiah talked about the highway of God, where faithful servants passed on good errands. The way of the Cross is the way one takes when he serves God. It is not the "Sad Way" but rather the "Glad Way." Jesus came by way of the Cross, and the Book of Books on which the cross is planted, tells us to "take up our cross and follow." Whether atop the church steeple or on the highest mountain, it is The Glad Way. Heaven and God are at the end of that way. It is today aglow with the light of forgiving grace. It challenges the weak to walk by faith and offers pardon to those who fall at its foot. It is where Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." It is The Glad Way.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

THE TALK around the town

We were so sure we had told everything there was to tell about the current weekend that we were about to tear it off the calendar — And then - we learned of more parties—and more guests

* * *

So, we'll begin the day with news of a party for a June bride-elect, Kappa Kappa Gamma's Mary Lynn Christensen of Wahoo, whose marriage to Gary Edgar will be solemnized on June 10.

Today Miss Christensen will be complimented when Miss Halle Drake entertains at luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club. Following the luncheon the guests will go to the home of Miss Drake's grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Drake, where the bride-to-be will be presented with a linen shower.

The guests we mentioned are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Becker and their children, Daniel, David, Douglas, Dwayne, Dennis, Diane and Donald who arrived from Prairie Village, Kan., last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Becker and their family will be the guests of Mr. Becker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Becker, and of Mrs. Becker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Kunc.

* * *

There are more dinner dances on the Saturday night calendar, too. One of these is the party planned for the members of the Colonial Dancing Club — And we learned that dining and dancing also is on the Saturday night agenda for the members of the Safari Dancing club. Both parties are at Hotel Cornhusker.

* * *

This is the weekend that Mrs. Harold Johnson and her two young sons, Dan and Andrew, leave for their new home in Wyckoff, N.J., after a few weeks stay as guests at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonnson and their sons are moving to the east coast from Neemah, Wis., due to Mr. Johnson's transfer to the New York City office of his firm. It appears that the commuters group will have a new member.

* * *

We hear that Tom Spitznagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Spitznagle, has been chosen one of the two Nebraska boys who will attend the Teen-agers Republican Convention in Miami Beach, Fla. The 14 year-old Tom will leave on June 14.

We Hear That

Mr. ad Mrs. A. K. Chestum have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Don Arndt (Ruth Chestum) and their four children, Linda, Becky, DC and Janeen, who recently returned from Munich, Germany and who left this week to make their home in Corvallis, Ore. During their stay in Nebraska they visited relatives and friends in Columbus, Tekamah and Lincoln. Mr. Arndt has been serving as public relations man for the recreation department of the U.S. Army for the past 15 years, with headquarters in Munich.

★

Newcomers to Lincoln are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coulter and their four-year old daughter who arrived from Los Angeles, Calif., a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Coulter and their daughter now are residing at 1227 So. 24th St.

NEWS of the suburban areas

Neighbors on Circle Drive were out and about on Wednesday evening, May 26, attending a block party honoring Capt. and Mrs. William T. Price and Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Clark, who are about to depart from their stations at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

We're almost upon the month of June, when our social pages tell of many weddings and picture many beaming June brides.

But news of suburbia indicates some persons aren't waiting until June to wed. Residents of Skyline Terrace are travelling out-of-town this weekend to be on hand for a May wedding.

SKYLINE TERRACE

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wenzl and their four year old daughter, Susan; of Skyline Terrace, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wenzl are in St. Louis today to attend the wedding of the gentlemen's brother, Jim Wenzl, formerly of Beatrice, and Miss Judy Sunderman, of Clinton, Ohio.

The ceremony will take place at 7 o'clock this evening at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church.

The residents of Skyline Terrace left for St. Louis yesterday morning and plan to return on Tuesday. On June 4, they will go to Beatrice to attend a reception held by the family and friends of the bridegroom, at First Trinity Lutheran Church. The parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs H. J. Wenzl, are long-term residents of Beatrice.

The newlyweds will return to St. Louis to make their home there.

June is the month of many weddings. But Mr. and Mrs. Wenzl have told us of a second May wedding involving another member of Mr. Wenzl's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wenzl, Susan, and their 16 month old daughter, Dawn; travelled to Fairbury twice in honor of the event. On May 7 they attended the wedding rehearsal in Fairbury as Susan was flower girl and Mr. Wenzl served as usher at the wedding ceremony of Mr. Wenzl's cousin, Miss Jeanette Beckman, of Fairbury; and Darrell Stewart, of Washington, Kans.

A prenuptial dinner at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hilda Beckman, was also an event of the evening. The wedding ceremony was held the following evening, May 8.

PARK MANOR

Things were jumping last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Conaway. Mr. and Mrs. Conaway's basement is being occupied by a university student who is associated with a branch of the ROTC military services. We are speaking of Bob Ayres and we also are speaking about the party that he and his fiancee, Miss Lynette Loescher, hosted for officers, cadets and university military instructors and their wives or dates. Assisting the host and hostess with their duties were Mr. and Mrs. Conaway.

YW Show

The annual flower show of the Garden Club of the Havelock YWCA will be held Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6, at the center.

Entries for the show, which will have as its theme, "Floral Salute to the YWCA," will be received from 8:30 o'clock to 10 o'clock, Saturday morning.

The show will be open to the public from 2 o'clock to 9 o'clock, Saturday; and from noon to 6 o'clock, Sunday.

The Four Escorts Win Friends—To The Tune of "I'm A Loser"

When there no longer is room in the garage for the family cars, when you can't hear your own telephone ringing, when you look out the window to see anywhere from 10 to 50 youngsters collected on your lawn and drive—then you know for sure you have a combo player in your family.

All is peace and quiet at the Kenneth Popp home in Park Manor—until school is out—then the electric guitars and the drums take over, the strains of music are carried by the spring breezes over the rooftops of southeast Lincoln, and the fans begin to gather from far and near.

The young musicians, currently calling themselves "The Escorts," are (from the left) Bob Brassette, bass guitar; Kevin Popp, drums; Jim Childress, lead guitar, at the microphone; and Steve Hall, rhythm guitar, on the right.

Their enthusiastic listeners, who often must be dragged home to meals by exasperated parents, range in age from the elementary school crowd up through junior and senior high.

The Escorts, all 9th graders at Millard Lefler Junior High, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Popp, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brassette Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Waldo W. Childress and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall

Attendants

Revealing plans for her June wedding is Miss Patricia Ann Rumpeltes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Rumpeltes, who will become the bride of James Larry Russell on Satruday, June 12.

The former University of Nebraska coed has chosen her sister, Mrs. Paul J. Sienknecht of Midland, Mich., as her matron of honor for the ceremony, which will be solemnized at 7 o'clock in the evening at St. Paul United Church of Christ.

Her bridesmatrons will be Mrs. Tehran R. Adair and Mrs. Thomas C. Gates, and the junior bridesmaid will be Miss Mary Anne Raymer.

Jody E. Diebold of Roseville, Mich., will serve Mr. Russell as best man, and seating the guests will be Donald Russell of Oxford, Miss.; Richard Stream, Thomas C. Gates and Walter E. Johnson.

Honoring Miss Rumpeltes and her fiance on Friday evening, June 11, will be Mr. Russell's mother, Mrs. L. W. Norwood, and CM Sgt. Norwood of Rantoul, Ill., who will entertain at a prenuptial dinner at the Hotel Cornhusker.

The guest list will include members of the family and bridal party, and the 6:30 o'clock dinner will follow the wedding rehearsal at the church.

Mr. Russell, who is stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base, attended the University of Mississippi, Oxford, Miss., and Copiha-Lincoln Junior College, Wesson, Miss.

Extension Club Council

Meeting in Kearney next Wednesday and Thursday will be members of the Nebraska Council of Home Extension Clubs who will hold their annual spring conference and election of officers.

To be installed as council president will be Mrs. Elmer Barnhill of Lincoln, who has served as president-elect the past year. A former council treasurer, she has been active in the organization for 36 years.

Nominated for the office of vice president are Mrs. Emil Banset of Omaha, and Mrs. Joe Hull of Grand Island, and nominees for historian are Mrs. Alma Youngs, Nelson, and Mrs. Herbert Zartner, Bellevue.

Opening lead — king of spades.

Here is an interesting hand from a duplicate tournament. At most tables the final contract was six diamonds, but not all the declarers were successful, several going down one when they they failed to play the hand properly.

At those tables where South went down one, the play followed the same pattern all the way. West led the king of spades which South took with the ace

Declarer could not afford to play trumps right away, since the defense would be able to cash a spade trick so he led a heart to the jack and then cashed the A-K of hearts, discarding a spade from dummy.

When declarer then led the ten of diamonds, West grabbed the ace and returned a heart Dummy ruffed, but East overruffed to defeat the contract one trick

The proper defense was not hard for West to figure out, since the early plays indicated that South had started with the A-K-Q-5 of hearts. West simply had to hope that his partner had a trump higher than dummy's eight.

The declarers who made the slam took an extra precaution which resulted in their making the contract. They appreciated the danger that a fourth round of hearts could put the contract in jeopardy, so, in order to avert this danger, they cashed the A-K of clubs (after taking three rounds of hearts) and discarded the queen of hearts

They were then able to force out the ace of diamonds and thus make the slam.

It is interesting to note that those declarers who failed in six diamonds would also have been defeated if the East-West cards were interchanged

In that case, assuming a spade lead followed by three rounds of hearts and the ten of diamonds, East would win the diamond with the ace and return a heart for West to ruff with the nine and thus score the setting trick.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, age 49, but I am far from "old," if you know what I mean. A very prominent, well-to-do professional man (he is a widower) has asked to marry me I've been a widow for six years. Melvin is very affectionate and full of fun, and he seems young at heart, but you never know. Please don't think I am silly, but a friend of mine, who was widowed twice and stung three times with older men, told me that men who lose their hair early in life do not have much "drive" romantically. (I hope you get what I am trying to put across.) I've known Melvin practically all my life. (His wife and I were good friends.) I wasn't missed. My sons slowly turned away from me On Mother's Day I always get expensive gifts with beautiful cards with verses saying what a wonderful mother I am and how much they love me! It is like rubbing salt in the wound. One son hasn't been in my home for three years, but every Mother's Day he sends an extravagant gift. I hope you'll find space in your column to let young daughters-in-law know that all their husbands' mothers want from them is to love their sons and to take good care of their families. # Guests, 'Goodbyes' In The Service Circles

BY SUE DRAKE

This evening, the officers of the 98th Strategic Aerospace Wing and their wives will get together for a wing party at the Officers' Club.

The host squadron, the 343rd Bombardment Squadron, has chosen a "Buccaneer" theme for the evening, beginning at 6:30 p.m. The chairman of the evening activities is Capt. Duane Cassidy.

The wives of the 344th Bombardment Squadron recently honored Mrs. Robert Lague at their monthly coffee in the Terrace Room of the Officers' Club.

The hostesses for the farewell event were Mrs. Lyle Knight, Mrs. Leland Schmoker, Mrs. Daniel Snow, Mrs. Randy Tollefson, Mrs. Duane Weller, and Mrs. Dale West.

Maj. and Mrs. Norman Gates and children had as their dinner guests Thursday evening Lt. Col. and Mrs. Earl Lott and their children, and Maj. and Mrs. Joseph Abshire and their family.

Maj. and Mrs. Loren L. Kenefick and their children recently returned to Lincoln after visiting with friends in Pittsburgh, and Gettysburg, Pa., and before returning to Lincoln, they visited with their parents, Mrs. John Kenefick and Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Wenzel in Wisconsin.

Maj. and Mrs. Thomas Boles had as their LAFB houseguests Mrs. Boles brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Head and their sons, Philip and Alan, of Summitville, Ind.

Lt. and Mrs. Max Lieberman entertained a group of friends at their LAFB quarters last night.

Mrs. Leroy Kutscher and Mrs. Norman Gates were hostesses at a farewell coffee honoring Mrs. John Crook when they entertained at the home of Mrs. Gates.

Bidding Mrs. Crook a fond farewell were Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Brodie Keene, Mrs. Ruef, Mrs. Lester Holmes, Mrs. Harold Morrison, Mrs. Henry Liljedahl, Mrs. Robert Coffey, Mrs. Robert Crooks, Mrs. Robert Fowler, Mrs. Raymond Bryan, Mrs. Howard Moore, Mrs. Arthur Stokes, Mrs. Herbert Hamilton, Mrs. James Watt, and Mrs. Thomas Boles.

Lt. Col. Crook is retiring from the Air Force and with his family, will reside in Pine Bluffs, Ark.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Peter Vuchetich and children, and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Alan Simpkins and children are getting together for a farewell picnic with Col. and Mrs. Paul Monroe and their family this weekend.

Col. and Mrs. Monroe will leave this month for his new assignment in Virginia.

Capt. and Mrs. Eugene Alley were a host and hostess when they entertained at a potluck dinner bridge last weekend at their LAFB quarters.

Their guests for the evening were Capt. and Mrs. Archie Anz, Capt. and Mrs. Gordon Zigler, Capt. and Mrs. Richard Williams, Capt and Mrs. William Meikle, and Capt. and Mrs. Flay Goodwin.

Concluding the evening with the high score was Mrs. Meikle, while Mrs. Williams held the second-high score.

Maj. and Mrs. Leland Schmoker have as their LAFB houseguests Mrs. Schmoker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arle Boltz of Dighton, Kan.

Also visiting at LAFB last week was Mrs. Catherine Schwob, of Le Sueur, Minn., when she was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. William Schwob.

Maj and Mrs. K. L. Schmid had as their recent LAFB houseguests Mrs. Schmid's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Head, of Anaheim, Calif.

Last night, the officers of the 344th Bombardment Squadron and their wives were together at Bowling Lake Lodge for a farewell courtesy extended to Maj. Robert Lague, who is retiring from the Air Force, and Mrs. Lague.

The committee in charge of arrangements, Mrs. Richard Flowers, Mrs. Lauri Parsinnen and Mrs. Les Coody, chose a western theme for the evenings's activities.

On June 3rd, at ten o'clock, the wives of the 343rd Bombardment Squadron will hold their monthly coffee at the Officers' Club.

Also on June 3—the wives of the 345th Bombardment Squadron will get together at the Esquire Club for a luncheon.

Square Dance

Quintet In Tie For 2nd Place

. . . PLAYER SUFFERS HEAD CUT

Indianapolis (AP)—Joe Kirkwood Jr., an infrequent PGA tour starter, made a one-under-par 70 stand up for the halfway lead in the $87,000 Speedway Festival Open Golf Tournament Friday.

Kirkwood, 42, the Joe Palooka of the movies almost a decade ago, had a 36-hole total of 139, three under par for the distance, putting him a stroke ahead of a quintet bracketed at 140.

A gusty wind at Greentree Country Club's par 71 course not only slowed most of the 140 competing pros, but also caused a freak accident to defending champion Gary Player.

Player, while totaling his second straight 73 at the scorer's table, was struck on the head by a clipboard blown by the wind from a television tower on the 18th green.

Player reacted like a batter beaned by a fast ball and blood flowed from a gash caused by the flying clipboard. But the South African an hour later was out on the practice driving range.

One stroke behind Kirkwood, who hasn't played the PGA tour full time since 1951, were Lionel Hebert, who had a three-under-par 68 for the day's best round; two-time Speedway champion Doug Ford, Miller Barber, Dan Sikes and Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez.

The Greentree course, troubling players with spongy greens along with the chilly wind, found only 14 players cracking par in the second round of the chase for first money of $15,200.

Nine were deadlocked at 141, two strokes behind Kirkwood, whose 70 round included two birdies, one bogey and a string of 10 straight pars after his two birdies.

The covey included Labron Harris Jr. and Dow Finsterwald, who came up with second-round 69s; Johnny Pott, Bruce Crampton, Don Essig, Dick Stickney, Bill Martindale, Art Wall and first-round leader Tommy Bolt.

Bolt, who entered Friday's round with a one-stroke lead after opening with 68, slowed to a second round 73. Bolt staggered to an opening nine 39, four over par, but closed briskly with a two-under-par 34.

The field was cut to 77 players for the final rounds Saturday and Sunday. It took 148 or better to survive the cutoff.

33 Qualifiers Ready For Memorial Day 500

. . . CARBURETION TESTS SET TODAY

Indianapolis (AP)—Weary mechanics tightened the last safety bolts Friday on about a million dollars' worth of racing machinery which 22 veterans and 11 rookies will drive Monday in the 49th 500-mile Memorial Day auto race.

The last chance to check out the cars at racing speed will be carburetion tests Saturday and it appeared all 33 qualifiers would be ready.

Veteran Rodger Ward's last chance to start evidently vanished when it was reported the car wrecked last Saturday by Lloyd Ruby, third-place finisher last year, would be ready for a shakedown in the carburetion period.

After starting in 15 straight 500s, winning twice and finishing in the top four for the last six years, Ward was only the 34th-fastest qualifier, which made him first alternate.

The only other questionable car had been that of Parnelli Jones, 1963 winner, wrecked in practice May 21. It was back in one piece, too.

Memorial Day lasts almost as long as Christmas in Indianapolis, where the 500 Festival, built around the 54-year-old race, has had the half-million population city jumping since May 1.

The huge Festival parade will be a pre-race climax at twilight Saturday, with 33 elaborate floats rivaling those of the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, Calif. and Mardi Gras at New Orleans. Hundreds of bands and marching units, and auto loads of TV, film and sports celebrities. The notables will include native Hoosier Astronaut Gus Grissom.

A downtown ballroom was decorated with 8,000 peonies—the Indiana State flower—for the annual governor's ball Friday night.

All 37,000 reserved seats had been sold in bleachers along the parade route. Deputy Police Chief Daniel Veza predicted another 250,000 or more spectators would stand up.

Dedication Set For Jr. Golf Clubhouse

. . . AT 10:30 THIS MORNING

Lincoln's Junior Golf Course clubhouse, constructed by the Home Builders Association of Lincoln, will be turned over to the city at open house ceremonies at 10:30 this morning.

During the ceremonies, Bob Peterson, president of the Home Builders, will present the keys to the $30,000 structure to city councilman Ervin Peterson. Peterson is representing the city in Mayor Dean Petersen's absence.

Planning of the clubhouse, materials and labor were donated to the junior golf course by the Home Builders. The building houses a pro shop, a lounge area with fireplace, a snack lounge and snack bar, kitchen and storage facilities.

Other participants in the opening ceremonies include Clarence Krueger, past president of the Home Builders; R. D. O'Brien, who supervised the construction; Jim Ager, director of parks and recreation; and Mary Anne Griffith, the newly-crowned Miss Lincoln.

Miss Griffith will cut a ribbon to signify opening of the clubhouse, which also will open Lincoln's Parade of Homes. The clubhouse will be the first stop on the 1965 Parade of Homes which opens Sunday.

Lincoln Moose Run Season Record To 6-1

—GOLDENROD HANDICAP SET TODAY—

Ak-Sar-Ben Puts Big Purses On Line For Weekend Racing

Omaha — Racing secretary and handicapper Louis Eilken has loaded the two-day holiday program at the Ak-Sar-Ben track with outstanding races.

The Goldenrod Handicap for $10,000 will bring out the class of the sprint field on Saturday.

Then on Monday's Memorial Day card Eilken has announced another first for Thoroughbred racing at Ak-Sar-Ben. Nine distance races with the horses going at a collective distance of nine and three-eighths miles plus 50 yards have been offered to the horsemen.

Post time for both Saturday and Monday races will be 2 p.m.

Jerry Get Up, the Cinderella horse of the 1964 meeting will try for his first Ak-Sar-Ben triumph of the meeting Saturday against the likes of Old Rivers, Lady Bars, Q-Ball, Peppy Cadet, National Guard, Little By Little and Sun Bend.

Old Rivers is a two-time winner at the meeting already including one end of the Beef State Handicap. Lady Bars also has made two trips to the winners circle while Peppy Cadet won a division of the Beef State.

Monday's $15,000 added Ak-Sar-Ben Kings Plate Handicap will match three-year-olds and up at one mile and one-sixteenth. Pelouse's Sara will be top weighted at 117 pounds.

Top competition will come from these well-known Ak-Sar-Ben favorites — Fly By Venus, Brick Dust, Son of Silky, Northern Water, Radcliff, Red Eff, Olympiarco, Do Go Abbey, Field Rich, Globe N Anchor, Little Melody and Del Cornado.

Manager Tom Brock said that expanded facilities at the plant will make it possible to better both the single day attendance and pari-mutuel handle records which were set on Memorial Day last year. That day 24,616 fans put $1,223,772 through the windows.

"With the addition of the lower concourse and the improvements in the Turf Garden we can take care of many more people comfortably," Brock declared.

Rain Postpones Babe Zaharias Golf Tournament

Beaumont, Tex. (AP) — A heavy rain and high winds forced postponement of the $8,500 Babe Zaharias Open first round Friday with only eight players having posted 18-hole scores. All scores were wiped out.

The 35 pros and two amateurs making up the field will play 36 holes Saturday and the final 18 holes Sunday in the 54-hole event.

Sue Maxwell was among those who finished and she posted a one-under-par 69 that probably would have led had the first round been completed.

Athletics Sign Mossi; Senators Claim Rookie

Kansas City (AP) The Kansas City Athletics announced Friday the signing of Don Mossi, veteran left-hander who has played with several American League clubs the past 11 years.

At the same time the A's announced Tom Harrison, a rookie right-hander, had been claimed on waivers by the Washington Senators. Harrison, 20, Bell, Calif., appeared in only one game for Kansas City.

Cubs Deal Utilityman

ORIOLE SLIDES IN SAFELY

. . . PLAYER SUFFERS HEAD CUT

Indianapolis (AP)—Joe Kirkwood Jr., an infrequent PGA tour starter, made a one-under-par 70 stand up for the halfway lead in the $87,000 Speedway Festival Open Golf Tournament Friday.

Kirkwood, 42, the Joe Palooka of the movies almost a decade ago, had a 36-hole total of 139, three under par for the distance, putting him a stroke ahead of a quintet bracketed at 140.

A gusty wind at Greentree Country Club's par 71 course not only slowed most of the 140 competing pros, but also caused a freak accident to defending champion Gary Player.

Player, while totaling his second straight 73 at the scorer's table, was struck on the head by a clipboard blown by the wind from a television tower on the 18th green.

Player reacted like a batter beaned by a fast ball and blood flowed from a gash caused by the flying clipboard. But the South African an hour later was out on the practice driving range.

One stroke behind Kirkwood, who hasn't played the PGA tour full time since 1951, were Lionel Hebert, who had a three-under-par 68 for the day's best round; two-time Speedway champion Doug Ford, Miller Barber, Dan Sikes and Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez.

The Greentree course, troubling players with spongy greens along with the chilly wind, found only 14 players cracking par in the second round of the chase for first money of $15,200.

Nine were deadlocked at 141, two strokes behind Kirkwood, whose 70 round included two birdies, one bogey and a string of 10 straight pars after his two birdies.

The covey included Labron Harris Jr. and Dow Finsterwald, who came up with second-round 69s; Johnny Pott, Bruce Crampton, Don Essig, Dick Stickney, Bill Martindale, Art Wall and first-round leader Tommy Bolt.

Bolt, who entered Friday's round with a one-stroke lead after opening with 68, slowed to a second round 73. Bolt staggered to an opening nine 39, four over par, but closed briskly with a two-under-par 34.

The field was cut to 77 players for the final rounds Saturday and Sunday. It took 148 or better to survive the cutoff.

Dedication Set For Jr. Golf Clubhouse

. . . AT 10:30 THIS MORNING

Lincoln's Junior Golf Course clubhouse, constructed by the Home Builders Association of Lincoln, will be turned over to the city at open house ceremonies at 10:30 this morning.

During the ceremonies, Bob Peterson, president of the Home Builders, will present the keys to the $30,000 structure to city councilman Ervin Peterson. Peterson is representing the city in Mayor Dean Petersen's absence.

Planning of the clubhouse, materials and labor were donated to the junior golf course by the Home Builders. The building houses a pro shop, a lounge area with fireplace, a snack lounge and snack bar, kitchen and storage facilities.

Other participants in the opening ceremonies include Clarence Krueger, past president of the Home Builders; R. D. O'Brien, who supervised the construction; Jim Ager, director of parks and recreation; and Mary Anne Griffith, the newly-crowned Miss Lincoln.

Miss Griffith will cut a ribbon to signify opening of the clubhouse, which also will open Lincoln's Parade of Homes. The clubhouse will be the first stop on the 1965 Parade of Homes which opens Sunday.

33 Qualifiers Ready For Memorial Day 500

. . . CARBURETION TESTS SET TODAY

Indianapolis (AP)—Weary mechanics tightened the last safety bolts Friday on about a million dollars' worth of racing machinery which 22 veterans and 11 rookies will drive Monday in the 49th 500-mile Memorial Day auto race.

The last chance to check out the cars at racing speed will be carburetion tests Saturday and it appeared all 33 qualifiers would be ready.

Veteran Rodger Ward's last chance to start evidently vanished when it was reported the car wrecked last Saturday by Lloyd Ruby, third-place finisher last year, would be ready for a shakedown in the carburetion period.

After starting in 15 straight 500s, winning twice and finishing in the top four for the last six years, Ward was only the 34th-fastest qualifier, which made him first alternate.

The only other questionable car had been that of Parnelli Jones, 1963 winner, wrecked in practice May 21. It was back in one piece, too.

Memorial Day lasts almost as long as Christmas in Indianapolis, where the 500 Festival, built around the 54-year-old race, has had the half-million population city jumping since May 1.

The huge Festival parade will be a pre-race climax at twilight Saturday, with 33 elaborate floats rivaling those of the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, Calif. and Mardi Gras at New Orleans. Hundreds of bands and marching units, and auto loads of TV, film and sports celebrities. The notables will include native Hoosier Astronaut Gus Grissom.

A downtown ballroom was decorated with 8,000 peonies—the Indiana State flower—for the annual governor's ball Friday night.

All 37,000 reserved seats had been sold in bleachers along the parade route. Deputy Police Chief Daniel Veza predicted another 250,000 or more spectators would stand up.

Athletics Sign Mossi; Senators Claim Rookie

Kansas City (AP) The Kansas City Athletics announced Friday the signing of Don Mossi, veteran left-hander who has played with several American League clubs the past 11 years.

At the same time the A's announced Tom Harrison, a rookie right-hander, had been claimed on waivers by the Washington Senators. Harrison, 20, Bell, Calif., appeared in only one game for Kansas City.

Rain Postpones Babe Zaharias Golf Tournament

Beaumont, Tex. (AP) — A heavy rain and high winds forced postponement of the $8,500 Babe Zaharias Open first round Friday with only eight players having posted 18-hole scores. All scores were wiped out.

The 35 pros and two amateurs making up the field will play 36 holes Saturday and the final 18 holes Sunday in the 54-hole event.

Sue Maxwell was among those who finished and she posted a one-under-par 69 that probably would have led had the first round been completed.

Cubs Deal Utilityman

–GOLDENROD HANDICAP SET TODAY–

Ak-Sar-Ben Puts Big Purses On Line For Weekend Racing

Omaha — Racing secretary and handicapper Louis Eilken has loaded the two-day holiday program at the Ak-Sar-Ben track with outstanding races.

The Goldenrod Handicap for $10,000 will bring out the class of the sprint field on Saturday.

Then on Monday's Memorial Day card Eilken has announced another first for Thoroughbred racing at Ak-Sar-Ben. Nine distance races with the horses going at a collective distance of nine and three-eighths miles plus 50 yards have been offered to the horsemen.

Post time for both Saturday and Monday races will be 2 p.m.

Jerry Get Up, the Cinderella horse of the 1964 meeting will try for his first Ak-Sar-Ben triumph of the meeting Saturday against the likes of Old Rivers, Lady Bars, Q-Ball, Peppy Cadet, National Guard, Little By Little and Sun Bend.

Old Rivers is a two-time winner at the meeting already including one end of the Beef State Handicap. Lady Bars also has made two trips to the winners circle while Peppy Cadet won a division of the Beef State.

Monday's $15,000 added Ak-Sar-Ben Kings Plate Handicap will match three-year-olds and up at one mile and one-sixteenth. Pelouse's Sara will be top weighted at 117 pounds.

Top competition will come from these well-known Ak-Sar-Ben favorites — Fly By Venus, Brick Dust, Son of Silky, Northern Water, Radcliff, Red Eff, Olympiarco, Do Go Abbey, Field Rich, Globe N Anchor, Little Melody and Del Cornado.

Manager Tom Brock said that expanded facilities at the plant will make it possible to better both the single day attendance and pari-mutuel handle records which were set on Memorial Day last year. That day 24,616 fans put $1,223,772 through the windows.

"With the addition of the lower concourse and the improvements in the Turf Garden we can take care of many more people comfortably," Brock declared.

BABY-SITTING SHOOTER

Richard Carden of Loon Lake, N.Y., aims for the mark at a bowman's match at Ticonderoga as his five-month-old son, Jeffrey wakes from a snooze. Mrs. Carden also was competing in a match and no baby sitter was available.

Chisox' Scratch Hits Blank Yankees, 2-0

. . . NY MUFFS SCORING CHANCES

Chicago (AP)—The American League leading Chicago White Sox, held hitless for five innings by Bill Stafford, put together scratch hits by Johnny Romano and Don Buford for a sixth inning run and went on to defeat the New York Yankees 2-0 Friday night.

Joe Horlen got the victory that snapped Chicago's three-game losing streak by checking the Yankees on six hits. He is now 5-3.

Romano led off the sixth with a bloop single to left, and after Horlen sacrificed and Danny Cater struck out, Don Buford slapped a single off the glove of first baseman Joe Pepitone.

Romano scored on the play, sliding past catcher Doc Edwards and injuring his right foot on the play.

The White Sox added an insurance run in the seventh when Pete Ward doubled and Ron Hansen singled.

The Yankees had a couple of scoring chances, the first in the opening inning when Phil Linz and Roger Maris both singled but Mickey Mantle ended the threat by bouncing into a double play.

Tom Tresh led off the Yankee fifth with a single but was forced by Clete Boyer, who promptly stole second. Edwards was safe on an error by Ward and Stafford sacrificed but Linz bounced out to end the inning.

In the seventh with one out, Tresh and Boyer singled but Boyer was caught in a rundown between first and second and pinch batter Horace Clarke flied out.

Oliva Leads Twins Past Senators, 4-1

Washington (AP) — Tony Oliva drove in three runs with a single and a homer, leading Minnesota to a 4-1 victory over Washington in the rain-delayed opener of a twi-night double-header Friday.

The second game was postponed because of rain.

Dave Boswell allowed only one hit—Bob Chance's second-inning double—through 5⅔ innings until a blistered finger forced him out of the game. Johnny Klippstein and Bill Pleis went the rest of the way, allowing four more hits.

Giants Use 7-Run Frame For 12-7 Win

San Francisco (AP) — The San Francisco Giants broke loose for seven runs in the sixth inning, snapped a 4-4 tie and went on to crush the Cincinnati Reds 12-7 Friday night.

Hal Lanier's two-run single and a two-run error by Cincinnati first baseman Tony Perez were the big plays of the sixth. The Giants got four hits and drew three walks in the inning against John Tsitouris and reliever Jim Duffalo as 11 men went to the plate.

Dick Schofield and Jim Hart hit bases-empty homers for the Giants. John Edwards hit a solo homer and Johnny Harper hit a three-run shot for the Reds.

After striking out three times and grounding into a force play, Giants center fielder Willie Mays was taken out of the contest because of a heavy cold.

Schofield drew a one-out walk starting the sixth inning. Jesus Alou and Willie McCovey singled before the second out. After Jim Hart singled, Duffalo entered the game.

Cap Peterson drew a walk, loading the bases. Tom Haller walked, bringing in the third run of the frame.

Lanier followed with his two-run single. Bob Shaw's grounder down the first-base line was kicked around by Perez for his second error of the evening, letting in the sixth and seventh runs.

Dodgers Reactivate 1st Base Coach Gilliam

Los Angeles (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers reactivated first base coach Jim Gilliam Friday, making room for the veteran infielder by sending third baseman-outfielder Derrell Griffith to Spokane.

Gilliam, 36, played with the Dodgers for 12 seeasons before becoming a coach last year. A team spokesman said he was eligible immediately. He plays second or third base.

Segura Defeats McKay

San Rafael, Calif. (AP)—Pancho Segura of Euador defeated Barry MacKay of Los Angeles 6-2, 6-3 Friday in the second day of the first annual Peacock Gap International Tennis Tournament.

June Means Big Money For Tournament Golfers

New York (UPI) — When June starts busting out all over it means a hundred grand or more a week for the tournament-tough professionals at the national golf circuit.

June alone brings $470,000 in prizes. July sets up another $361,000. August weighs in wit!h a fantastic total of $530,000 and what once were known as the dog days now are the happiest days of all.

"It's incredible that next month will offer more prize money than an entire year did not so long ago," says Joe Dey of the U.S. Golf Association which has done its bit to perk up the month of June.

The USGA Open, once rich in prestige but low in cash, is a $125,000 event this year.

The $25,000 prize to the 1965 U.S. Open winner will present more loot for a four day job than any pro ever earned in an entire season up to 1944 when Byron Nelson scooped up some $38,000 in war bonds.

In 1934, for instance, little Paul Bunyan was the PGA circuit leader with $6,767 and that bought a lot of T-bone steaks in those days.

They were shooting in a flock of $5,000 and $7,500 tournaments in that era—today's average for a one-day pro-amateur event.

June kicks off with the $100,000 Buick Open at Grand Blanc, Mich., June 3-6 after a warm-up June 2 in a $2,500 Pro-Am.

Next comes the $125,000 Cleveland Open June 10-13 and that one includes a $10,000 Pro-Am June 9, followed by a $5,000 Pro-Am at Toledo June 14 where some of the boys might pick up expense money.

The big one — dollars as well as prestige — goes off at the Bellerive Country Club near St. Louis June 17-20 when Ken Venturi defends his U.S. Open crown against the usual wolf-pack led by Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Doug Sanders, and Tony Lema.

Then comes the June wrap-up in the $100,000 St. Paul open with its $2,500 Pro-Am.

July has two $100,000 tour tournaments in the Canadian Open at Toronto and Thunderbird Classic at Harrison, N.Y., but also has a couple of "little ones" — the Western Open at $70,000 and the Insurance City Open at $60,000.

There's nothing under a hundred grand in August with the $200,000 Carling World Open at Sutton, Mass., Aug. 19-22 heading the slate for the entire year.

The man who started it all was George May of Chicago who came up with his $50,000 wonders at Tam O'Shanter. Whoever won that one automatically became the top money winner of the year. The parade included Bob Toski, Julius Boros, Ted Kroll and Dick Mayer.

Things slacked off briefly after May severed his alliance with the Professional Golfers Association but his big money ideas began to catch on around the nation.

Now, in the midst of a boom nurtured by television, the ceiling is not yet in sight.

Fight Fan Plans Suit Against Title Fight In Maine

Trenton, N.J. (AP)—A fight fan plans to go to court seeking the return of $10 he paid to watch the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay heavyweight fight on theater television.

David J. Friedland, a Jersey City attorney, said Friday he has been hired to represent Ronald Lewis of Elberon, N.J., a New York stock broker.

Friedland said the suit would be filed Tuesday in Superior Court in Monmouth County. He said the suit will charge the bout was a "fraud, a fake and not a genuine prize fight."

Briton, Swede Win

Surbiton, England (AP)— Jan Erik Lundquist of Sweden and Roger Taylor of Britain reached the final of the men's singles in the Surrey Grass Courts Tennis Championship Friday.

Willie Pep May Retire Again From Boxing

Toronto (AP) — Willie Pep, former featherweight boxing champion, may be retiring for a second time.

Pep, who first retired six years ago after twice losing the world title to Sandy Saddler, took up fighting again early this year and won four bouts.

Bucs' 6-1 Win Drops Mets To Cellar

New York (AP) — Willie Stargell's three-run homer off Warren Spahn capped an eight-inning rally that carried the streaking Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6-1 victory over the New York Mets Friday night.

The Pirates' seventh straight triumph lifted them out of last place in the National League and dropped the Mets into the cellar.

Patterson Says Fight Not Fixed

Prestwick, Scotland (AP) — Floyd Patterson, former world heavyweight champion, said Friday that Sonny Liston really was knocked out in the controversial title fight with Cassius Clay last Tuesday night in Lewiston, Maine.

Patterson was interviewed at Prestwick airport en route to Sweden, where he will train for a possible title fight with Clay.

"The fight certainly was not fixed," said Patterson.

"I was sitting right below them when Clay's right fist landed. It was a solid punch."

Patterson was asked "could Liston have gotten to his feet?"

"I am sure he could not. He is too old and slow in his reactions. I do not think he could face up to that kind of punch," Patterson replied.

Patterson, who hopes to meet Clay for the world title in September or October, said "Clay is a good boxer and always has been underestimated. I'll give him a good fight and I hope to win back the title.

"I am convinced I could beat Liston now. But I shall be ready for Clay when the time comes."

Liston twice knocked out Patterson in the first round.

Cracked Rib Healed On Phillies' Belinsky

Philadelphia (AP)— Bo Belinsky, Philadelphia Phillies southpaw pitcher, said Friday he has been pitching for eight weeks with a cracked rib.

Belinsky said Xrays taken this week showed a linear fracture of the eighth rib has healed.

Stock Car Team Member Injured

Columbia, S.C. (AP)—A member of the pit crew of a stock car racing team was hospitalized Friday night after a crash at the Columbia Speedway.

Eddie Bolin of Belmont, N.C., was described in fair condition at a Columbia hospital. Hospital authorities said both Bolin's legs were broken.

A race car driven by Marion Woodward of Augusta, Ga., slammed into the railing. The impact tore out a 10-foot piece of railing and sent it flying into the pits. It struck Bolin across the thighs.

Rams Sign Former Pittsburgh Lineman

Los Angeles (AP) — Football lineman Lou Cordieleone has been signed by the Los Angeles Rams, the club announced Friday.

Cordieleone, 28, a four-year National Football League veteran, was made a free agent by the Pittsburgh Steelers last year. He was in the Rams training camp in 1962, then went to Pittsburgh on waivers and played there in 1962 and 1963 as a defensive lineman.

Omaha Wins Area Title

Omaha (AP) — Omaha University won a spot in the NAIA national baseball championships by defending Minot, N.D., 6-2 and 7-2, in a Friday night doubleheader for the area 3 title.

Angels, Baltimore Split Doubleheader

. . . ROBINSON SPARKLES

Baltimore (AP)—Irrepressible Brooks Robinson, in the starting line-up for the first time since May 9, smacked a two-run double, sparking a 3-0 second-game victory that earned Baltimore a split in Friday's twi-night doubleheader with Los Angeles.

The Angels won the opener 3-1 as lefty George Brunet stopped the Orioles on two hits and Bobby Gene Smith knocked in two Angel runs while celebrating his 31st birthday.

Robinson, last year's Most Valuable Player in the American League, had been sidelined with a fractured right thumb and a pinched tendon in his left shoulder.

Interest Centers On Prep Stars At California Relays

Modesto, Calif. (AP)—Interest centers on a pair of high school aces and a group of foreign stars Saturday night in the 24th annual California Relays which won't have the depth of past productions because of the NCAA-AAU track and field feud.

These relays are sanctioned by the AAU so university athletes from NCAA schools won't participate.

Jim Ryun, the high school senior from Wichita, Kan., who became the first prep runner to break four minutes in the mile faces veteran competitors including Olympic runner-up Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia.

Belgium's Eugene Allonsius also filed an entry for the mile along with United States stars Jim Grelle, John Camien, Cary Weisiger, John Garrison and Jack Kennedy.

Chisox' Scratch Hits Blank Yankees, 2-0

. . . NY MUFFS SCORING CHANCES

Chicago (AP)—The American League leading Chicago White Sox, held hitless for five innings by Bill Stafford, put together scratch hits by Johnny Romano and Don Buford for a sixth inning run and went on to defeat the New York Yankees 2-0 Friday night.

Joe Horlen got the victory that snapped Chicago's three-game losing streak by checking the Yankees on six hits. He is now 5-3.

Romano led off the sixth with a bloop single to left, and after Horlen sacrificed and Danny Cater struck out, Don Buford slapped a single off the glove of first baseman Joe Pepitone.

Romano scored on the play, sliding past catcher Doc Edwards and injuring his right foot on the play.

The White Sox added an insurance run in the seventh when Pete Ward doubled and Ron Hansen singled.

The Yankees had a couple of scoring chances, the first in the opening inning when Phil Linz and Roger Maris both singled but Mickey Mantle ended the threat by bouncing into a double play.

Tom Tresh led off the Yankee fifth with a single but was forced by Clete Boyer, who promptly stole second. Edwards was safe on an error by Ward and Stafford sacrificed but Linz bounced out to end the inning.

In the seventh with one out, Tresh and Boyer singled but Boyer was caught in a rundown between first and second and pinch batter Horace Clarke flied out.

—2ND GAME POSTPONED—

Oliva Leads Twins Past Senators, 4-1

Washington (AP) — Tony Oliva drove in three runs with a single and a homer, leading Minnesota to a 4-1 victory over Washington in the rain-delayed opener of a twi-night double-header Friday.

The second game was postponed because of rain.

Dave Boswell allowed only one hit—Bob Chance's second-inning double—through 5⅔ innings until a blistered finger forced him out of the game. Johnny Klippstein and Bill Pleis went the rest of the way, allowing four more hits.

Giants Use 7-Run Frame For 12-7 Win

San Francisco (AP) — The San Francisco Giants broke loose for seven runs in the sixth inning, snapped a 4-4 tie and went on to crush the Cincinnati Reds 12-7 Friday night.

Hal Lanier's two-run single and a two-run error by Cincinnati first baseman Tony Perez were the big plays of the sixth. The Giants got four hits and drew three walks in the inning against John Tsitouris and reliever Jim Duffalo as 11 men went to the plate.

Dick Schofield and Jim Hart hit bases-empty homers for the Giants. John Edwards hit a solo homer and Johnny Harper hit a three-run shot for the Reds.

After striking out three times and grounding into a force play, Giants center fielder Willie Mays was taken out of the contest because of a heavy cold.

Schofield drew a one-out walk starting the sixth inning. Jesus Alou and Willie McCovey singled before the second out. After Jim Hart singled, Duffalo entered the game.

Cap Peterson drew a walk, loading the bases. Tom Haller walked, bringing in the third run of the frame.

Lanier followed with his two-run single. Bob Shaw's grounder down the first-base line was kicked around by Perez for his second error of the evening, letting in the sixth and seventh runs.

June Means Big Money For Tournament Golfers

New York (UPI) — When June starts busting out all over it means a hundred grand or more a week for the tournament-tough professionals at the national golf circuit.

June alone brings $470,000 in prizes. July sets up another $361,000. August weighs in wit!h a fantastic total of $530,000 and what once were known as the dog days now are the happiest days of all.

"It's incredible that next month will offer more prize money than an entire year did not so long ago," says Joe Dey of the U.S. Golf Association which has done its bit to perk up the month of June.

The USGA Open, once rich in prestige but low in cash, is a $125,000 event this year.

The $25,000 prize to the 1965 U.S. Open winner will present more loot for a four day job than any pro ever earned in an entire season up to 1944 when Byron Nelson scooped up some $38,000 in war bonds.

In 1934, for instance, little Paul Bunyan was the PGA circuit leader with $6,767 and that bought a lot of T-bone steaks in those days.

They were shooting in a flock of $5,000 and $7,500 tournaments in that era—today's average for a one-day pro-amateur event.

June kicks off with the $100,000 Buick Open at Grand Blanc, Mich., June 3-6 after a warm-up June 2 in a $2,500 Pro-Am.

Next comes the $125,000 Cleveland Open June 10-13 and that one includes a $10,000 Pro-Am June 9, followed by a $5,000 Pro-Am at Toledo June 14 where some of the boys might pick up expense money.

The big one — dollars as well as prestige — goes off at the Bellerive Country Club near St. Louis June 17-20 when Ken Venturi defends his U.S. Open crown against the usual wolf-pack led by Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper, Doug Sanders, and Tony Lema.

Then comes the June wrap-up in the $100,000 St. Paul open with its $2,500 Pro-Am.

July has two $100,000 tour tournaments in the Canadian Open at Toronto and Thunderbird Classic at Harrison, N.Y., but also has a couple of "little ones" — the Western Open at $70,000 and the Insurance City Open at $60,000.

There's nothing under a hundred grand in August with the $200,000 Carling World Open at Sutton, Mass., Aug. 19-22 heading the slate for the entire year.

The man who started it all was George May of Chicago who came up with his $50,000 wonders at Tam O'Shanter. Whoever won that one automatically became the top money winner of the year. The parade included Bob Toski, Julius Boros, Ted Kroll and Dick Mayer.

Things slacked off briefly after May severed his alliance with the Professional Golfers Association but his big money ideas began to catch on around the nation.

Now, in the midst of a boom nurtured by television, the ceiling is not yet in sight.

Fight Fan Plans Suit Against Title Fight In Maine

Trenton, N.J. (AP)—A fight fan plans to go to court seeking the return of $10 he paid to watch the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay heavyweight fight on theater television.

David J. Friedland, a Jersey City attorney, said Friday he has been hired to represent Ronald Lewis of Elberon, N.J., a New York stock broker.

Friedland said the suit would be filed Tuesday in Superior Court in Monmouth County. He said the suit will charge the bout was a "fraud, a fake and not a genuine prize fight."

Willie Pep May Retire Again From Boxing

Toronto (AP) — Willie Pep, former featherweight boxing champion, may be retiring for a second time.

Pep, who first retired six years ago after twice losing the world title to Sandy Saddler, took up fighting again early this year and won four bouts.

Patterson Says Fight Not Fixed

Prestwick, Scotland (AP) — Floyd Patterson, former world heavyweight champion, said Friday that Sonny Liston really was knocked out in the controversial title fight with Cassius Clay last Tuesday night in Lewiston, Maine.

Patterson was interviewed at Prestwick airport en route to Sweden, where he will train for a possible title fight with Clay.

"The fight certainly was not fixed," said Patterson.

"I was sitting right below them when Clay's right fist landed. It was a solid punch."

Patterson was asked "could Liston have gotten to his feet?"

"I am sure he could not. He is too old and slow in his reactions. I do not think he could face up to that kind of punch," Patterson replied.

Patterson, who hopes to meet Clay for the world title in September or October, said "Clay is a good boxer and always has been underestimated. I'll give him a good fight and I hope to win back the title.

"I am convinced I could beat Liston now. But I shall be ready for Clay when the time comes."

Liston twice knocked out Patterson in the first round.

Stock Car Team Member Injured

Columbia, S.C. (AP)—A member of the pit crew of a stock car racing team was hospitalized Friday night after a crash at the Columbia Speedway.

Eddie Bolin of Belmont, N.C., was described in fair condition at a Columbia hospital. Hospital authorities said both Bolin's legs were broken.

A race car driven by Marion Woodward of Augusta, Ga., slammed into the railing. The impact tore out a 10-foot piece of railing and sent it flying into the pits. It struck Bolin across the thighs.

Rams Sign Former Pittsburgh Lineman

Los Angeles (AP) — Football lineman Lou Cordieleone has been signed by the Los Angeles Rams, the club announced Friday.

Cordieleone, 28, a four-year National Football League veteran, was made a free agent by the Pittsburgh Steelers last year. He was in the Rams training camp in 1962, then went to Pittsburgh on waivers and played there in 1962 and 1963 as a defensive lineman.

Omaha Wins Area Title

Omaha (AP) — Omaha University won a spot in the NAIA national baseball championships by defending Minot, N.D., 6-2 and 7-2, in a Friday night doubleheader for the area 3 title.

Angels, Baltimore Split Doubleheader

. . . ROBINSON SPARKLES

Baltimore (AP)—Irrepressible Brooks Robinson, in the starting line-up for the first time since May 9, smacked a two-run double, sparking a 3-0 second-game victory that earned Baltimore a split in Friday's twi-night doubleheader with Los Angeles.

The Angels won the opener 3-1 as lefty George Brunet stopped the Orioles on two hits and Bobby Gene Smith knocked in two Angel runs while celebrating his 31st birthday.

Interest Centers On Prep Stars At California Relays

Modesto, Calif. (AP)—Interest centers on a pair of high school aces and a group of foreign stars Saturday night in the 24th annual California Relays which won't have the depth of past productions because of the NCAA-AAU track and field feud.

These relays are sanctioned by the AAU so university athletes from NCAA schools won't participate.

Jim Ryun, the high school senior from Wichita, Kan., who became the first prep runner to break four minutes in the mile faces veteran competitors including Olympic runner-up Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia.

Belgium's Eugene Allonsius also filed an entry for the mile along with United States stars Jim Grelle, John Camien, Cary Weisiger, John Garrison and Jack Kennedy.

Bond's Hit Gives Houston Win Over Cardinals In 12th

. . . ASPROMONTE HOMERS IN 9TH TO TIE

Houston (AP) — Walt Bond doubled home Jim Wynn in ne 12th inning, giving the louston Astros a 3-2 victory over St. Louis Friday night.

Jim Owens pitched the final three innings for the Astros, retiring all nine batters he faced. He gained his second victory against two defeats.

Ray Sadecki limited the Astros to five hits and had a 2-1 lead until Bob Aspromonte led off the ninth inning with a home run into the left field seats Joe Gaines then doubled, but Barney Schultz relieved Sadecki and retired the Astros without further scoring

Aspromonte singled across Houston's first run in the fourth inning following a double by Wynn.

St Louis started the scoring in the second when Ken Boyer doubled and eventually came home on a force play Bob Skinner's triple and Dick Groat's single brought the Cardinals their second run in the third.

Braves' Fifth-Inning Rally Edges Los Angeles By 5-4

. . . DODGERS' 4-0 LEAD FADES

Los Angeles (AP) — Mack Jones climaxed a fifth-inning rally with a two-run single that put Milwaukee ahead to stay as the Braves defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-4 Friday night

The Dodgers built an early 4-0 lead against right-hander Ken Johnson, making his first start for Milwaukee since being acquired in a trade with Houston, but the Braves came back to hand left-hander Claude Osteen his fifth loss against three victories

A double by Gene Oliver followed by successive singles by Mike de la Hoz, Jones and Woody Woodward, gave the Braves two fourth inning runs, all coming after there were two out

The Braves won the game in the fifth after Hank Aaron walked with two out and scored on successive singles by Joe Torre and Oliver. Howie Reed relieved Osteen and walked Eddie Mathews before Jones hit his two-run single to put Milwaukee in front, 5-4.

The victory went to left-hander Billy O'Dell who pitched the last six innings and allowed only two hits

John Roseboro singled home the first two Dodger runs in the first inning Lou Johnson doubled home the other two Dodger runs in the third.

. . . ASPROMONTE HOMERS IN 9TH TO TIE

Houston (AP) — Walt Bond doubled home Jim Wynn in the 12th inning, giving the Houston Astros a 3-2 victory over St. Louis Friday night.

Wynn singled with one out off Ron Taylor and raced home as Bond lashed a double to left field.

Jim Owens pitched the final three innings for the Astros, retiring all nine batters he faced. He gained his second victory against two defeats.

Ray Sadecki limited the Astros to five hits and had a 2-1 lead until Bob Aspromonte led off the ninth inning with a home run into the left field seats. Joe Gaines then doubled, but Barney Schultz relieved Sadecki and retired the Astros without further scoring.

Aspromonte singled across Houston's first run in the fourth inning following a double by Wynn.

St. Louis started the scoring in the second when Ken Boyer doubled and eventually came home on a force play. Bob Skinner's triple and Dick Groat's single brought the Cardinals their second run in the third.

Braves' Fifth-Inning Rally Edges Los Angeles By 5-4

. . . DODGERS' 4-O LEAD FADES

Los Angeles (AP) — Mack Jones climaxed a fifth-inning rally with a two-run single that put Milwaukee ahead to stay as the Braves defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-4 Friday night.

The Dodgers built an early 4-0 lead against right-hander Ken Johnson, making his first start for Milwaukee since being acquired in a trade with Houston, but the Braves came back to hand left-hander Claude Osteen his fifth loss against three victories.

A double by Gene Oliver, followed by successive singles by Mike de la Hoz, Jones and Woody Woodward, gave the Braves two fourth inning runs, all coming after there were two out.

The Braves won the game in the fifth after Hank Aaron walked with two out and scored on successive singles by Joe Torre and Oliver. Howie Reed relieved Osteen and walked Eddie Mathews before Jones hit his two-run single to put Milwaukee in front, 5-4.

The victory went to left-hander Billy O'Dell, who pitched the last six innings and allowed only two hits.

John Roseboro singled home the first two Dodger runs in the first inning. Lou Johnson doubled home the other two Dodger runs in the third.

Van Pelt Eyes Habeas Corpus Cases

Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt took under submission after a hearing Friday the question of whether 49 habeas corpus cases currently pending in his court should be dismissed so they can be brought instead in the state courts.

Included among the cases is one in behalf of Darrel Parker, former Lincoln city forester, serving a life term for murder in the 1956 strangulation death of his wife.

Another is the case of Dennis O'Kelly of Lincoln, serving a life sentence for second degree murder in the 1962 slaying of a girl friend, Barbara Eastman.

The U.S. Supreme Court's so-called Escobedo doctrine, holding that an accused is entitled to counsel when a case moves from the investigative to the accusatory stage, has brought on the flood of habeas corpus cases.

The Legislature at its current session passed a bill, LB836, providing that relief of the type sought in the pending cases may be sought in the court in which the person first was convicted. This would relieve the federal court of its load of such cases.

Richard Bruckner of Omaha attorney for Parker, pleaded that the Federal District Court should retain jurisdiction in the Parker case. He said the constitutional questions at issue were raised 10 separate times in the prior long court history of the case and it would be "futile" to send the case back to courts which already had considered the issues 10 times.

Attorney John Gourlay of Lincoln, representing O'Kelly, also maintained the federal court should retain jurisdiction in his client's case because return of the case to the state courts would represent "an exercise in futility."

Bernard Packett of the state attorney general's office said the attorneys seemed to be contending that LB836 provided only a "paper remedy."

For the federal court to retain jurisdiction would have the effect of the court saying, "I'm not sure that the state courts will act in good faith and give this the strength and teeth it has in it," Packett said.

Gourlay denied that he was suggesting that LB836 is only a paper remedy, but he said the court must look beyond this procedural matter to substantive law in the state courts to ascertain if, in fact, the state courts can provide relief.

WORK ON NEB. 2 NEAR DUNBAR IS COMPLETED

The State Highway Department announced Friday that the segment of Neb. 2 between Syracuse and Dunbar has been reopened to traffic.

The segment had been closed for several weeks and traffic had been detoured while the paving was being completed near Dunbar.

The 8.6-mile project was completed at a cost of $1.3 million.

State Maintenance Engineer John McMeekin suggested that weekend travelers use Neb 2 because detours are in effect in southeast Nebraska on U.S. 136 between Tecumseh and Auburn and on Neb 4 east of Humboldt.

Twelve pages of wholesome colored comics, feature stories with plenty of pictures and the big entertainment section are a few reasons why nearly everyone reads the "Sunday Journal and Star."

New Nursing Home Rules Urged

The State Hospital Advisory Council Friday recommended that the State Health Board adopt new regulations designed to improve Nebraska's licensed nursing homes for the elderly.

The council deferred a decision, however, on whether new standards should apply to nursing homes in existence prior to 1957, when regulations were first revised.

The council directed Verne Pangborn, director of the State Health Department's Hospital Division, to gather information on how many of the state's 330 licensed homes for the aged and infirm were operating prior to the first revision of regulations.

The action was taken after the council met with the special committee which two years ago was given the task of drawing up new regulations. New standards must be approved by the State Health Board following a public hearing to become official.

Pangborn said the tighter regulations would force many old, marginal nursing homes to close down and most other homes to greatly expand their facilities and staffs.

The Hospital Advisory Council made only minor changes in the regulations as suggested by the special committee.

When licensing standards were first revised in 1957, a "grandfather" clause was included so the tighter regulations would not apply to homes already in existence.

The special committee Friday suggested the "grandfather" clause be removed so the new standards would also apply to the older homes.

Six Win Vreeland Prizes

The 1965 Vreeland Prizes for students who have excelled in the fine arts were awarded to six University of Nebraska students Friday.

The $400 Francis William Vreeland Awards in art went to Jon Gierlich of Lawrence, Kan., a graduate student, and Richard Hayes of Lincoln, an undergraduate.

The John H. Vreeland $300 Awards in England went to Dennis Fritzinger, an undergraduate, and Donald Jones, a graduate student, both of Lincoln.

The $300 Ida M. Vreeland Awards in music were presented to Robert S. Nelson of Lincoln and Sister M. Jean de Notre Dame of Notre Dame Academy in Omaha.

County Commissioners OK New Highland Fire District

Lancaster County Commissioners have approved a petition to create a new Highland fire district in the southwest portion of the county.

The new district leaves only an area immediately north of Lincoln without fire protection.

Action on the Highland petition, filed some six months ago, had been delayed due to disagreement over 22 sections of land which wouldn't be included.

Volunteer departments at Hallam, Hickman and newly-formed Highland districts have agreed to serve these unprotected sections.

Approval of the Highland petition automatically killed a second petition filed two weeks ago asking that approximately the same area be annexed to the Southwest Fire District.

However, the County Attorney's office had advised the board that some signatures on the second petition were invalid.

Saturday Dance Slated As Benefit For New Building

Funds for the proposed Multiple Purpose Recreation Building will be raised at a Saturday benefit dance at 7:30 p.m. in Pershing Auditorium, featuring three combos and a singing duo.

The "Get With It" dance is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Lincoln Goodwill Industries.

Rick and The Wanderers, The Reactions, the Mods and the Silhouettes singers are all donating their services for the benefit.

The recreation building is being planned by the Keen Time Club of Lincoln to provide supervised recreational facilities for the youth, handicapped youth and aged.

Miss Hoegemeyer Selected To Edit Daily Nebraskan

Marilyn Hoegemeyer of Hooper will become editor next fall of The Daily Nebraskan, student newspaper at the University of Nebraska.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hoegemeyer of Hooper.

Miss Hoegemeyer will succeed Frank Partsch of St. Paul, who has served as editor during the spring semester.

Mike Jeffrey of Lincoln will remain as business manager. Carole Peno of Milligan was named managing editor. Joanne Stochlman of Lincoln was appointed news editor and James Swartz of Grand Island was named sports editor.

Wesleyan Grad Going To Lima, Peru, Camp

Marilyn Morris, 1965 Nebraska Wesleyan University graduate, will attend a National Student YMCA work camp in Lima, Peru, July 6-Aug. 25.

Miss Morris, of Murray, said she is one of 11 students from across the nation to attend the "Building for Brotherhood" camp in Peru.

MONTGOMERY WARD

Excise Tax Saving

Montgomery Ward today pledged to pass on to customers any excise tax savings that may be enacted by Congress.

On major merchandise items, the excise tax saving credit will be granted to all customers who make purchases between now and July 1.

Local Montgomery Ward store Manager, Mr. C. P. Stapleton, today stated:

"Montgomery Ward policy is to pass excise tax savings on to customers. Effective at once, buyers of refrigerators, room air conditioners, freezers, dryers, ranges, stereos and televsion sets are to be assured they will receive a credit or refund in the amount of any excise tax savings which might be enacted between now and July 1."

Mr. Stapleton said that government officials, including Congressmen and Senators, have been advised of the Company's action. He also stated that Ward officials are urging Congress to repeal the excise as soon as possible and to enlarge the number of items subject to the retroactive effective date to give the buying public maximum benefit from the proposed legislation.

Ward's Fall and Winter catalogs, now being printed for distribution to millions of customers during June and July, include a pledge to pass on any excise tax savings to customers.

Van Pelt Eyes Habeas Corpus Cases

Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt took under submission after a hearing Friday the question of whether 49 habeas corpus cases currently pending in his court should be dismissed so they can be brought instead in the state courts.

Included among the cases is one in behalf of Darrel Parker, former Lincoln city forester, serving a life term for murder in the 1956 strangulation death of his wife.

Another is the case of Dennis O'Kelly of Lincoln, serving a life sentence for second degree murder in the 1962 slaying of a girl friend, Barbara Eastman.

The U.S. Supreme Court's so-called Escobedo doctrine, holding that an accused is entitled to counsel when a case moves from the investigative to the accusatory stage, has brought on the flood of habeas corpus cases.

The Legislature at its current session passed a bill, LB836, providing that relief of the type sought in the pending cases may be sought in the court in which the person first was convicted. This would relieve the federal court of its load of such cases.

Richard Bruckner of Omaha, attorney for Parker, pleaded that the Federal District Court should retain jurisdiction in the Parker case. He said the constitutional questions at issue were raised 10 separate times in the prior long court history of the case and it would be "futile" to send the case back to courts which already had considered the issues 10 times.

Attorney John Gourlay of Lincoln, representing O'Kelly, also maintained the federal court should retain jurisdiction in his client's case because return of the case to the state courts would represent "an exercise in futility."

Bernard Packett of the state attorney general's office said the attorneys seemed to be contending that LB836 provided only a "paper remedy."

For the federal court to retain jurisdiction would have the effect of the court saying, "I'm not sure that the state courts will act in good faith and give this the strength and teeth it has in it," Packett said.

Gourlay denied that he was suggesting that LB836 is only a paper remedy, but he said the court must look beyond this procedural matter to substantive law in the state courts to ascertain if, in fact, the state courts can provide relief.

Grain Market Hit By Profit Cashing

Chicago (AP) — Persistent profit cashing was more than the grain futures market could withstand Friday and most contracts closed with moderate losses on the Board of Trade.

It was the first setback in four days and followed three rather broad general advances in which old crop soybeans accumulated gains ranging to about 12 cents a bushel.

Brokers said the selling probably was a little heavier than it might have been had it not been for the long holiday weekend. The exchange will be closed Monday and few speculators were willing to leave either long or short commitments in the market until Tuesday.

Soybeans held steady to firm most of the day but all deliveries finished with losses of a cent or more.

At the close, soybeans were 1⅛-2⅝ cents a bushel lower, July $2.81⅝-82; wheat ⅝-1⅛ lower, July new grade $1.40½; corn ⅛-½ lower, July $1.32¼-⅜; oats ¼ lower to ⅜ higher, July 67⅝-¾ cents; rye unchanged to ⅝ higher, July $1.17⅜.

Poverty War 'Well Begun'

. . . REPUBLICANS CHARGE 'BUNGLING'

Washington (UPI) — House Democrats said Friday the war on poverty has been "well begun." Republicans charged that it is shot through with "bungling" and ready to collapse.

These conflicting views were expressed in the report of the House Education and Labor Committee on President Johnson's request for authority to spend $1.5 billion on the poverty fight in the fiscal year starting July 1.

The committee approved the request earlier this month. The legislation was expected to get to the House floor in June.

The Democrats and Republicans disagreed on nearly every aspect of the program.

'Soundly Conceived'

"The war on poverty, scarcely 10 months old, has been well begun," the Democrats said. Although much of the program is just getting under way, they said, "It is possible to say that the program as a whole appears to be soundly conceived and that administration of it is being well and faithfully carried out."

Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., floor manager of the legislation, accused the Republicans of "irresponsibility" in their report. "That was no legislative report," he said. "It was political press agentry at the taxpayers' expense."

Gibbons said only two Republicans had troubled to go on the committee's inspection trips earlier this year, and that three had refused to sign the GOP report "apparently because they were repulsed by it."

Poverty Pork Barrel

The GOP report, seizing on early statements of Democrat Adam Clayton Powell, the committee chairman, said the local anti-poverty programs "have been turned into a political pork barrel by big city machines whose only interest in the poor is to exploit them."

The Republicans charged that anti-poverty director Sargent Shriver, by starting a big job corps recruiting campaign before sufficient camps were in operation, had caused a rush of applications that had to be turned down "further battering the shattered self-image of often rejected youth."

The Democrats described as an "apt compromise" their proposal to let Shriver override governors' vetoes of local anti-poverty plans if he finds the action based on discrimination, or partisan politics.

The Republicans said, "This nonsense fools no one . . . the power of the governors has diminished even further so that now it is near the vanishing point." They said the House should give the governors more, rather than less, power. And they called the Democratic plan "this shortsighted action on behalf of naked federal power."

Airlines Are Up In Rising Stock Market

New York (AP)—Airlines put on another show of strength in a rising stock market Friday.

Dull pre-weekend trading resulted in the lowest volume in nearly five months, 4.28 million shares compared with 5.53 million Thursday.

A number of Wall Streeters got an early start on their Memorial Day holiday. The stock market will be closed Monday.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 4.82 to 918.04.

Wall Streeters commented that big airline business this weekend was a reminder to investors that the summer months are the best for the airlines and that further big increases in profits are expected.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 1.5 to 335.8 with industrials up 2.7, rails up .6 and utilities up .6.

Of 1,360 issues traded, 692 rose and 382 fell. New highs for the year totaled 36 and new lows 50.

Ten of the 15 most active stocks rose and five fell. Sperry Rand was the most active issue, rising ⅛ to 12⅛ on 84,600 shares.

Eastern Air Lines, third in the rank of volume leaders, was the most active in its group. It rose 1¾ to 68¼. Also heavily traded, Continental Air Lines gained 2 and Pan American 1⅛. United rose 2, American 1½, Delta 3, Northwest 5 and Western 1½.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 1.64 million shares compared with 1.81 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Treasury bonds drifted lower in light trading.

Feeder Cattle Trends Uneven

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday in its weekly feeder cattle summary that price trends again were uneven this week but most cattle sold at steady to .50 higher, some reports indicated prices were 1.00 up and some only steady.

Demand continued active on heavy steers carrying some flesh. These cattle again sold very close to prices paid for lighter weights, with lower grades also moving at the higher prices. Continued gains in slaughter prices, generally the highest since January of 1963 at Omaha, were the main bolstering effect.

River markets: Calves scarce, choice 300-550 lb steer calves, Kansas City, Sioux City 24.50-27.50. Steers 700-750 lbs, choice 23.50-26.50, down to 22.50 Omaha; good and choice Kansas City 22.00-24.00, some fleshy to 24.50; standard and low good Kansas City 17.50-22.00. Steers 750-1,000 lbs, choice Kansas City-Sioux City 23.00-25.25; good and choice three markets 22.00-24.50. Heifers 500-850 lbs, good and choice 19.50-22.00.

New House Wanted

Des Moines (AP) — A move to acquire a new governor's residence was launched by the Iowa house.

Lincoln Girl Hurt As Cars Collide At 48th, Wilshire

A Lincoln girl was in satisfactory condition at a local hospital with leg injuries received in a two-car accident at 48th and Wilshire Friday afternoon.

Patricia A. Klemme 19, of 2601 No. Eldon Drive, was northbound on 48th at Wilshire, when her car collided with a southbound car driven by James D. Nothnagel, 21, of 5620 Madison, police said.

The Nothnagel car was making a left turn onto Wilshire at the time of the crash, Lincoln police said.

Northern Gas Expansion OKd

Washington (AP) — The Power Commission ruled late Friday that Northern Natural Gas Co., Omaha, Neb., may expand its pipeline system to provide gas to serve additional communities in the upper peninsula of Michigan and in Wisconsin.

A spokesman said the commission announced its decision without taking time to prepare the usual opinion in order to give the company as much notice as possible. He pointed out that the area involved has a short construction season because of severe winters.

Two Injured In Spectacular 2-Car Crash On Interstate

Mrs. Uverna A. Hubbell, 61, of 3025 South and Dan O. Roelofs, 19, of Denver were injured Friday morning in a spectacular two-car accident on Interstate 80 near the Oak Creek bridge northwest of the city.

Both were reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital Friday evening. Mrs. Hubbell is the wife of the Rev. T. V. Hubbell, a retired minister.

Lincoln police said a car driven by Roelofs rammed into the rear of the woman's car while both were westbound.

Police said the Hubbell car smashed through a guard rail, down an embankment and through a fence before finally coming to rest just short of the creek bed. They said the Roelofs car remained on the highway but slammed into the bridge railing.

Officers said about 100 feet of skid marks were visible at the scene.

Grain Market Hit By Profit Cashing

Chicago (AP) — Persistent profit cashing was more than the grain futures market could withstand Friday and most contracts closed with moderate losses on the Board of Trade.

It was the first setback in four days and followed three rather broad general advances in which old crop soybeans accumulated gains ranging to about 12 cents a bushel.

Brokers said the selling probably was a little heavier than it might have been had it not been for the long holiday weekend. The exchange will be closed Monday and few speculators were willing to leave either long or short commitments in the market until Tuesday.

Soybeans held steady to firm most of the day but all deliveries finished with losses of a cent or more.

At the close, soybeans were 1⅛-2⅝ cents a bushel lower, July $2.81⅝-82; wheat ⅝-1⅛ lower, July new grade $1.40½; corn ⅛-½ lower, July $1.32¼-⅜; oats ¼ lower to ⅜ higher, July 67⅝-¾ cents; rye unchanged to ⅝ higher, July $1.17⅜.

Otto Sinkie Dies; Retired Lawyer

Lake Charles, La. (AP)—Otto Sinkie, 80-year-old retired lawyer from Grand Island, Neb., died here Thursday night.

He was the author of a book entitled "Book of Altruism."

Poverty War 'Well Begun'

. . . REPUBLICANS CHARGE 'BUNGLING'

Washington (UPI) — House Democrats said Friday the war on poverty has been "well begun." Republicans charged that it is shot through with "bungling" and ready to collapse.

These conflicting views were expressed in the report of the House Education and Labor Committee on President Johnson's request for authority to spend $1.5 billion on the poverty fight in the fiscal year starting July 1.

The committee approved the request earlier this month. The legislation was expected to get to the House floor in June.

The Democrats and Republicans disagreed on nearly every aspect of the program.

'Soundly Conceived'

"The war on poverty, scarcely 10 months old, has been well begun," the Democrats said. Although much of the program is just getting under way, they said, "It is possible to say that the program as a whole appears to be soundly conceived and that administration of it is being well and faithfully carried out."

Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., floor manager of the legislation, accused the Republicans of "irresponsibility" in their report. "That was no legislative report," he said. "It was political press agentry at the taxpayers' expense."

Gibbons said only two Republicans had troubled to go on the committee's inspection trips earlier this year, and that three had refused to sign the GOP report "apparently because they were repulsed by it."

Poverty Pork Barrel

The GOP report, seizing on early statements of Democrat Adam Clayton Powell, the committee chairman, said the local anti-poverty programs "have been turned into a political pork barrel by big city machines whose only interest in the poor is to exploit them."

The Republicans charged that anti-poverty director sargent Shriver, by starting a big job corps recruiting campaign before sufficient camps were in operation, had caused a rush of applications that had to be turned down "further battering the shattered self-image of often rejected youth."

The Democrats described as an "apt compromise" their proposal to let Shriver override governors' vetoes of local anti-poverty plans if he finds the action based on discrimination, or partisan politics.

The Republicans said, "This nonsense fools no one . . . the power of the governors has diminished even further so that now it is near the vanishing point." They said the House should give the governors more, rather than less, power. And they called the Democratic plan "this short-sighted action on behalf of naked federal power."

Airlines Are Up In Rising Stock Market

New York (AP)—Airlines put on another show of strength in a rising stock market Friday.

Dull pre-weekend trading resulted in the lowest volume in nearly five months, 4.28 million shares compared with 5.53 million Thursday.

A number of Wall Streeters got an early start on their Memorial Day holiday. The stock market will be closed Monday.

Trading was cautious at the start, with changes slight and the pace slow. By the close activity was brisk.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 4.82 to 918.04.

Wall Streeters commented that big airline business this weekend was a reminder to investors that the summer months are the best for the airlines and that further big increases in profits are expected.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 1.5 to 335.8 with industrials up 2.7, rails up .6 and utilities up .6

Of 1,360 issues traded, 692 rose and 382 fell. New highs for the year totaled 38 and new lows 50.

Ten of the 15 most active stocks rose and five fell. Sperry Rand was the most active issue, rising ⅛ to 12⅛ on 84,600 shares.

Eastern Air Lines, third in the rank of volume leaders, was the most active in its group. It rose 1¾ to 68¾. Also heavily traded, Continental Air Lines gained 2 and Pan American 1⅛. United rose 2, American 1½, Delta 3, Northwest 5 and Western 1½.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 1.64 million shares compared with 1.81 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Treasury bonds drifted lower in light trading.

Feeder Cattle Trends Uneven

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday in its weekly feeder cattle summary that price trends again were uneven this week but most cattle sold at steady to .50 higher, some reports indicated prices were 1.00 up and some only steady.

Demand continued active on heavy steers carrying some flesh. These cattle again sold very close to prices paid for lighter weights, with lower grades also moving at the higher prices. Continued gains in slaughter prices, generally the highest since January of 1963 at Omaha, were the main bolstering effect.

River markets: Calves scarce, choice 300-550 lb steer calves, Kansas City, Sioux City 24.50-27.50. Steers 700-750 lbs, choice 23.50-26.50, down to 22.50 Omaha; good and choice Kansas City 22.00-24.00, some fleshy to 24.50; standard and low good Kansas City 17.50-22.00. Steers 750-1,000 lbs, choice Kansas City-Sioux City 23.00-25.25; good and choice three markets 22.00-24.50. Heifers 500-850 lbs, good and choice 19.50-22.00.

New House Wanted

Des Moines (AP) — A move to acquire a new governor's residence was launched by the Iowa house.

Lincoln Girl Hurt As Cars Collide At 48th, Wilshire

A Lincoln girl was in satisfactory condition at a local hospital with leg injuries received in a two-car accident at 48th and Wilshire Friday afternoon.

Patricia A. Klemme 19, of 2601 No. Eldon Drive, was northbound on 48th at Wilshire, when her car collided with a southbound car driven by James D. Nothnagel, 21, of 5620 Madison, police said.

The Nothnagel car was making a left turn onto Wilshire at the time of the crash, Lincoln police said.

Northern Gas Expansion OKd

Washington (AP) — The Power Commission ruled late Friday that Northern Natural Gas Co., Omaha, Neb., may expand its pipeline system to provide gas to serve additional communities in the upper peninsula of Michigan and in Wisconsin.

A spokesman said the commission announced its decision without taking time to prepare the usual opinion in order to give the company as much notice as possible. He pointed out that the area involved has a short construction season because of severe winters.

Two Injured In Spectacular 2-Car Crash On Interstate

Mrs. Uverna A. Hubbell, 61, of 3025 South and Dan O. Roelofs, 19, of Denver were injured Friday morning in a spectacular two-car accident on Interstate 80 near the Oak Creek bridge northwest of the city.

Both were reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital Friday evening. Mrs. Hubbell is the wife of the Rev. T. V. Hubbell, a retired minister.

Lincoln police said a car driven by Roelofs rammed into the rear of the woman's car while both were westbound.

Police said the Hubbell car smashed through a guard rail, down an embankment and through a fence before finally coming to rest just short of the creek bed. They said the Roelofs car remained on the highway but slammed into the bridge railing.

Officers said about 100 feet of skid marks were visible at the scene.

Western Press Allowed To See Soviet Camp

Moscow (UPI) — The Soviets opened up one of their army camps to Western correspondents Friday for the first time since World War II.

The visit to the camp of the Taman division 30 miles outside Moscow gave the impression that Red army soldiers go through tough, rigorous training. But in some ways they appeared to be more pampered than the Americans.

In the mess halls they have a special table for soldiers with birthdays.

The tour provided a unique view into the living and training of the division's 12,000 soldiers. But the correspondents were shown only old weapons, not the rockets the division claims it has.

'Forward To Victory'

The camp's brick barracks and buildings were sparkling with new yellow paint. They stood in neat grounds decked with red flags, fading pictures of Kremlin leaders and hundreds of crudely painted war posters proclaiming, "forward to the victory of communism." Incongruous little parks — with benches, gazebos and even fountains—stood between the barracks.

Nearby, enlisted men in fatigues and knee-length boots vaulted easily over fences on an obstacle course. A soldier used twigs to sweep the cold, bare hospital. A squad goose-stepped to trucks waiting to take them to one of the Red Army's many jobs — road-building.

There are separate halls, both spotless for officers and men plus a tea room with china teapots and silver samovars

The men get 3,700 calories per say. Friday's menu included a breakfast of fish, a lunch of herrings, onions, and cabbage soup with meat, and a dinner of meat and macaroni. Tea and bread at all meals round off a plain, hearty, typically Russian diet.

'Lenin Room'

The "Lenin room," papered with pictures of Soviet leaders, posters on Viet Nam, ideological propaganda and anti-Western cartoons, fills an important ground floor corner. Here the soldiers come to read, play chess, relax, watch television—and receive four hours of "political training" each week.

The division's men — all graduates of high schools and technical schools — are being trained for the defense of Moscow, their officers said Many helped set up a farm in the "virgin lands" grain area when it opened in the late 1950's.

These days, the officers said, the men spend six hours each day in training, two hours at homework, one hour at KP or other cleaning detail, three hours eating, eight hours sleeping and the rest in political indoctrination and sports.

Ak Annexation Discussion Set By Joint Group

Omaha (AP) — At the suggestion of Mayor A. V. Sorensen a joint committee of the City Council and the Ak-Sar-Ben of Governors will discuss annexation of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The mayor suggested the talks Friday and Council President H. F. Jacobberger immediately named representatives from the council. A. F. Jacobson, president of the Board of Governors of the civic organization, said he would appoint representatives "in due time."

The mayor said he was suggesting the discussion because the City Planning Board has recommended annexing the College of St. Mary campus and other nearby property.

If the board's recommendation is approved, Ak-Sar-Ben Field and Ak-Sar-Ben Arboretum would be a virtual island.

456 Candidates For Degrees At Creighton U.

Omaha (UPI) — Four-hundred and fifty-six Creighton University students are candidates for degrees at commencement Monday at the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Donald H. McGannon, president and chairman of the board of Westinghouse Broadcasting Co., will speak at the 10 a.m. ceremony in the Music Hall.

The Very Rev. H. W. Linn, S.J., university president, will confer degrees on the graduates and award Creighton's 1965 alumni achievement citation to Maj. Gen. Robert H. McCaw, judge advocate general of the U.S. Army. General McCaw practiced law in Omaha for several years after he was graduated from Creighton in 1931.

Dean Ferguson, 90, 75-Year Graduate

Dean O. J. Ferguson, retired dean of engineering at the University of Nebraska, will attend graduation exercises Saturday night at Dorchester High School.

It will be the 75th anniversary of his graduation and also he will be 90 years of age Saturday.

Wagner May Not Run Again

New York (AP) — An aide to Mayor Robert F. Wagner said Friday night the three-time mayor is seriously considering dropping his bid for another term in November.

The aide confirmed a report in the New York Times that Wagner was thinking about dropping from the race in order to spend more time with his two sons.

The aide said Wagner will announce his decisioon "in a week or two."

Two weeks ago, Rep. John V. Lindsay, East Side Manhattan Republican, announced his candidacy for the office.

Callan Spending Weekend In State

The weekend schedule in Nebraska of Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., includes a commencement address at Norris High School at Hickman, and a Saturday morning appearance in Columbus at a legislative affairs forum sponsored by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

The congressman reported he will spend the Memorial Day holiday at home in Odell with his family.

Texan May Disinherit Bride; Negro Best Man At Wedding

Houston, Tex. — A Texas millionaire and his granddaughter disagreed Friday on a statement by the young woman she had been disinherited because a Negro was best man at her wedding.

The grandfather, whose personal wealth has been estimated as high as $200 million, said, however, he had not made a final decision on the matter. The bride's mother said her daughter was just striking back after a family argument.

Mrs. Gladys Brown James, 24, granddaughter of Orange, Tex., industrialist Edgar Brown Jr., was married Thursday night to Marine Cpl. Sam James, a childhood sweetheart, also of Orange and now stationed at Ft. Meade, Md.

The wedding took place in the chapel at Ft. Meade with Ted Gay, a Detroit, Mich., Negro Marine friend of James as best man.

Shortly before the wedding, Mrs. James told a newsman:

"Granddad told me last Tuesday, 'If you go through with this you'll never get another penny of my money and I never want to see you again.'"

When asked if he had cut off his granddaughter from inheriting any part of his fortune, the elder Brown said:

"I haven't yet. I don't know exactly what I am going to decide about that. People say a lot of things they don't mean."

Senior Keeps His Long Hair

Council Bluffs, Iowa (AP) — Steve Hough, 18, has made his decision: He'll keep his beatle haircut and skip the cap and gown.

Steve is a senior at Thomas Jefferson High School. He's also a drummer with a rock 'n' roll combo styled-right down to the long hair-after the English Beatles.

Supt. of Schools Russell Mourer has ruled Steve cannot take part in the class commencement without a haircut.

Steve accepts the ruling as reasonable, "but you see," he explains, "I've been averaging $150 a week for the past 2½ years.'

So he'll settle for picking up his diploma later at the board of education.

Voters Extend Boundaries Of Scottsbluff JC

Scottsbluff (AP) — Scotts Bluff County voters gave 2,201 to 848 approval Friday to extending the boundaries of the Scottsbluff Junior College to include the entire county.

The proposal needed a 55% majority and got a majority of 72.18.

Only voters outside the city of Scottsbluff took part in the election. The entire county, rather than just the city, will now be the bases of setting the college levy.

The present board will serve until the next election when a board representing the entire county will be named. No major decisions are expected until the new board is elected.

Locks Injured In Crash Of Plane

Imperial (AP) — A Lamar, Neb., couple was injured Friday when a small plane crashed on takeoff from the Imperial airport.

A hospital spokesman identified the injured as Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Lock, each about 40. He said Mrs. Lock suffered a back injury and Lock superficial cuts.

The accident occurred about 7 a.m. Airport sources said the one engine-plane, a Piper Tri-Pacer, was owned by a flying club.

Western Press Allowed To See Soviet Camp

Moscow (UPI) — The Soviets opened up one of their army camps to Western correspondents Friday for the first time since World War II.

The visit to the camp of the Taman division 30 miles outside Moscow gave the impression that Red army soldiers go through tough, rigorous training. But in some ways they appeared to be more pampered than the Americans.

In the mess halls they have a special table for soldiers with birthdays.

The tour provided a unique view into the living and training of the division's 12,000 soldiers. But the correspondents were shown only old weapons, not the rockets the division claims it has.

'Forward To Victory'

The camp's brick barracks and buildings were sparkling with new yellow paint. They stood in neat grounds decked with red flags, fading pictures of Kremlin leaders and hundreds of crudely painted war posters proclaiming, "forward to the victory of communism." Incongruous little parks — with benches, gazebos and even fountains—stood between the barracks.

Nearby, enlisted men in fatigues and knee-length boots vaulted easily over fences on an obstacle course. A soldier used twigs to sweep the cold, bare hospital. A squad goose-stepped to trucks waiting to take them to one of the Red Army's many jobs — road-building.

There are separate halls, both spotless for officers and men plus a tea room with china teapots and silver samovars.

The men get 3,700 calories per say. Friday's menu included a breakfast of fish, a lunch of herrings, onions, and cabbage soup with meat, and a dinner of meat and macaroni. Tea and bread at all meals round off a plain, hearty, typically Russian diet.

'Lenin Room'

The "Lenin room," papered with pictures of Soviet leaders, posters on Viet Nam, ideological propaganda and anti-Western cartoons, fills an important ground floor corner. Here the soldiers come to read, play chess, relax, watch television—and receive four hours of "political training" each week.

The division's men — all graduates of high schools and technical schools — are being trained for the defense of Moscow, their officers said Many helped set up a farm in the "virgin lands" grain area when it opened in the late 1950's.

These days, the officers said, the men spend six hours each day in training, two hours at homework, one hour at KP or other cleaning detail, three hours eating, eight hours sleeping and the rest in political indoctrination and sports.

456 Candidates For Degrees At Creighton U.

Omaha (UPI) — Four-hundred and fifty-six Creighton University students are candidates for degrees at commencement Monday at the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Donald H. McGannon, president and chairman of the board of Westinghouse Broadcasting Co., will speak at the 10 a.m. ceremony in the Music Hall.

The Very Rev. H. W. Linn, S.J., university president, will confer degrees on the graduates and award Creighton's 1965 alumni achievement citation to Maj. Gen. Robert H. McCaw, judge advocate general of the U.S. Army. General McCaw practiced law in Omaha for several years after he was graduated from Creighton in 1931.

Ak Annexation Discussion Set By Joint Group

Omaha (AP) — At the suggestion of Mayor A. V. Sorensen a joint committee of the City Council and the Ak-Sar-Ben of Governors will discuss annexation of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The mayor suggested the talks Friday and Council President H. F. Jacobberger immediately named representatives from the council. A. F. Jacobson, president of the Board of Governors of the civic organization, said he would appoint representatives "in due time."

The mayor said he was suggesting the discussion because the City Planning Board has recommended annexing the College of St. Mary campus and other nearby property.

If the board's recommendation is approved, Ak-Sar-Ben Field and Ak-Sar-Ben Arboretum would be a virtual island.

Dean Ferguson, 90, 75-Year Graduate

Dean O. J. Ferguson, retired dean of engineering at the University of Nebraska, will attend graduation exercises Saturday night at Dorchester High School.

It will be the 75th anniversary of his graduation and also he will be 90 years of age Saturday.

Wagner May Not Run Again

New York (AP) — An aide to Mayor Robert F. Wagner said Friday night the three-time mayor is seriously considering dropping his bid for another term in November.

The aide confirmed a report in the New York Times that Wagner was thinking about dropping from the race in order to spend more time with his two sons.

The aide said Wagner will announce his decisioon "in a week or two."

Two weeks ago, Rep. John V. Lindsay, East Side Manhattan Republican, announced his candidacy for the office.

Texan May Disinherit Bride; Negro Best Man At Wedding

Houston, Tex. — A Texas millionaire and his granddaughter disagreed Friday on a statement by the young woman she had been disinherited because a Negro was best man at her wedding.

The grandfather, whose personal wealth has been estimated as high as $200 million, said, however, he had not made a final decision on the matter. The bride's mother said her daughter was just striking back after a family argument.

Mrs. Gladys Brown James, 24, granddaughter of Orange, Tex., industrialist Edgar Brown Jr., was married Thursday night to Marine Cpl. Sam James, a childhood sweetheart, also of Orange and now stationed at Ft. Meade, Md.

The wedding took place in the chapel at Ft. Meade with Ted Gay, a Detroit, Mich., Negro Marine friend of James as best man.

Shortly before the wedding, Mrs. James told a newsman: "Granddad told me last Tuesday, 'If you go through with this you'll never get another penny of my money and I never want to see you again.'"

When asked if he had cut off his granddaughter from inheriting any part of his fortune, the elder Brown said:

"I haven't yet. I don't know exactly what I am going to decide about that. People say a lot of things they don't mean."

Senior Keeps His Long Hair

Council Bluffs, Iowa (AP) — Steve Hough, 18, has made his decision: He'll keep his beatle haircut and skip the cap and gown.

Steve is a senior at Thomas Jefferson High School. He's also a drummer with a rock 'n' roll combo styled-right down to the long hair-after the English Beatles.

Supt. of Schools Russell Mourer has ruled Steve cannot take part in the class commencement without a haircut.

Steve accepts the ruling as reasonable, "but you see," he explains, "I've been averaging $150 a week for the past 2½ years.'

So he'll settle for picking up his diploma later at the board of education.

Voters Extend Boundaries Of Scottsbluff JC

Scottsbluff (AP) — Scotts Bluff County voters gave 2,201 to 848 approval Friday to extending the boundaries of the Scottsbluff Junior College to include the entire county.

The proposal needed a 55% majority and got a majority of 72.18.

Only voters outside the city of Scottsbluff took part in the election. The entire county, rather than just the city, will now be the bases of setting the college levy.

The present board will serve until the next election when a board representing the entire county will be named. No major decisions are expected until the new board is elected.

Locks Injured In Crash Of Plane

Imperial (AP) — A Lamar, Neb., couple was injured Friday when a small plane crashed on takeoff from the Imperial airport.

A hospital spokesman identified the injured as Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Lock, each about 40. He said Mrs. Lock suffered a back injury and Lock superficial cuts.

The accident occurred about 7 a.m. Airport sources said the one engine-plane, a Piper Tri-Pacer, was owned by a flying club.

Study Set To Improve Protection

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Gov. Frank Morrison moved Friday to improve protection against tornadoes and other natural disasters in Nebraska.

He said his office is immediately undertaking a study aimed at improving the reliability and coordination of communications for tornado and other severe storm warnings.

The study, he said, would involve the U.S. Weather Bureau and the State Safety Patrol.

He said the study would define the responsibilities of the Weather Bureau, the capabilities of the Safety Patrol in tornado warnings and review equipment and planning for local application.

Better Coordination

The governor said better coordination is needed between assistance agencies in times of natural disaster so all citizens could be warned in advance.

The governor's action followed extensive tornadoes this month which caused multi-million dollar damage and loss of four lives at Primrose.

Morrison also urged additional fire-prevention measures be instituted at the fire-scarred Nebraska National Forest near Halsey.

He said U.S. Forest Service officials should study the possibility of installing a sprinkler system, locating more fire-fighting equipment, grazing the grasslands near the forest and planting fire-resistant shrubs and trees around the forest.

Report Released

Morrison released the U.S. Agriculture Department's official report on the fire, which burned more than 1.5 million trees and thousands of acres of grassland.

The report, signed by Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman, confirmed that the fire started in a grassland area 2.5 miles west of the forest from a bolt of lightning.

Freeman said the fire was immediately discovered by a forest service employe, but high winds caused it to spread rapidly.

Freeman's report said "everything humanly possible was done by forest service personnel and local people to stop the fire from burning this unique area in which they all shared a pride and deep interest."

'Heroic Efforts'

Morrison said he was convinced that "heroic efforts" of the local citizens, forest service and other volunteers saved the area from greater disaster.

Morrison had requested Freeman to investigate the circumstances surrounding the fire.

MOTORISTS ARE URGED TO DRIVE WITH LIGHTS ON

Gov. Frank Morrison Friday urged all Nebraska motorists to drive with their lights on during the long Memorial Day weekend.

He challenged Nebraskans "to come up with an accident-free holiday weekend."

"It's ironic that on a holiday prefaced on honoring the dead, so many of us die ourselves on the highways," he added.

Law Violators Cause Of Traffic Accidents—Casey

"Traffic law violators are accident-makers," Col. Dan J. Casey, chief of the Nebraska Safety Patrol, said Friday.

He made the comment in urging motorists to drive safely over the first of the summer holidays, Memorial Day.

"Our accident records show," he said, "that over 90% of fatal accidents involve violations of traffic laws, proving that traffic accidents don't just happen, but are caused by motorists themselves."

"Traffic law violators are accident-makers," Col. Dan J. Casey, chief of the Nebraska Safety Patrol, said Friday.

He made the comment in urging motorists to drive safely over the first of the summer holidays, Memorial Day.

"Our accident records show," he said, "that over 90% of fatal accidents involve violations of traffic laws, proving that traffic accidents don't just happen, but are caused by motorists themselves."
